NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2111 (Senate Bill No. 72), entitled:

An Act prescribing penalties to be imposed upon conviction of stealing poultry.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I simply desire to call the attention of the House to the provisions of this bill. It provides that for stealing poultry of any kind the person so offending shall be guilty of a felony and shall on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or to undergo imprisonment by separate or solitary confinement for not more than three years or both in the discretion of the court.

This bill places chicken stealing slightly higher in the criminal scale than bank robbery, provided the bank is robbed politely.

It is a dangerous bill and a hard hearted governor might sign it. I don't think we ought to send it to him.

I hope the measure is defeated.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as now amended, is in a milder form than when originally introduced in the Senate.

The comparison made by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, is not a fair one. To my mind one of the most dastardly things that a man can do is to steal the poultry of some farmer or landowner who derives most of his livelihood from that source. This bill is intended to check that nefarious practice in at least one portion of Pennsylvania, in Cumberland county, and I urge you to support this bill.

This bill is well intended and to make comparisons of it with bank robbery is not fair. It may be bad practice to rob from banks, but I dare say that it makes this practice no less nefarious.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if I have your permission I would like to just inquire whether the gentleman from Cambria has ever had any chickens stolen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will. I have not only had chickens stolen, Mr. Speaker, but during the course of my dissolute youth I have helped to steal them.

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman says that he has stolen chickens and, therefore, he wants to reduce the penalty as a consequence of stealing them.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Erie making a statement or is he interrogating the gentleman from Cambria?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have answered the gentleman. The statute of limitations has run and, therefore, I have no interest in the penalty.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, if he knows what kind of chickens are referred to in this bill?

Mr. ANDREWS. Poultry chickens, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria, before I decide how to vote on this bill, whether or not he feels that the period of his dissolute youth has passed?

Mr. ANDREWS. I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I object to the statement of the gentleman from Cambria. Judging by his actions in the House I think neither the period of his dissolute youth nor any other period pertaining to the waywardness of his life has been passed.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Briefly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask the gentleman from Cambria if his "fowl" remarks regarding the judiciary of Philadelphia are occasioned by his stealing chickens in his youth?

Mr. ANDREWS. I did not hear the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia repeat his question?

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria if his "fowl" remarks regarding the judiciary of Philadelphia are prompted or occasioned by his stealing chickens in his youth?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, as far as the Philadelphia judges would be concerned, if they had a case like this pending, Philadelphia would import a judge from Cambria County and that judge would clear me.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I realize that the terms of this bill seem very drastic, but as many of you know who live in the rural districts the stealing of chickens is a very bad business and is one of the most annoying things with which the farmers have to contend. Every farmer—perhaps not every farmer, but many farmers who go out to protect their chickens at night run the risk of being shot down by the chicken thieves who approach their premises.

While on the surface it does seem to be very severe, I think that this bill should be passed.

I might say that some years ago we had a case in one of our eastern counties where a man was convicted of chicken stealing. The judge asked him "Have you anything to say before sentence should be passed upon you?" He hung his head for a moment and he said "Well, Judge, there's only one thing. The chickens I stole were only very common stock."

What I do want to impress upon you is that it is one of the most annoying forms of thievery that exists in the rural districts and many a farmer takes his life in his hands when he goes out to protect his poultry against the ordinary chicken thief. Therefore, I feel that I shall vote for this bill and I ask the other members of the House to do the same.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cumberland permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether this bill includes old hens?

Mr. WADE. I think it does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I trust that the spirit of levity, which I am not attempting to condemn, may not persuade this House to vote against this bill. It is, to my mind, a very important measure.

In the district that I represent the chicken thief is fully as deadly as the bank robber. We had, within two or three weeks before I came to this session, a young man shot down in cold blood because he was attempting to defend the poultry on his farm.

I ask you to support this bill.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to ask you for your support of this bill.

The members from the cities naturally do not know what it is to have chickens stolen. In my own district, not over two years ago, we had two cases involving two widows whose chickens were their only means of support, and both of them were cleaned out. I do not think that any penalty that might be passed by this House would be too great for any man who would steal chickens from places like that.

I ask you to support this bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, there has been a lot of levity about this bill.

It reminds me of an incident that happened down in our county some years ago.

We have a rather eccentric minister down there, and the elders in the church told him one morning that there was a lot of chicken stealing and he ought to preach a sermon about it. So he picked up a rock about as big as my fist and took it into the pulpit. He took as his text the Commandment "Thou shalt not steal," and preached a wonderful sermon. He took the Bible and slammed it down and said, "Ladies and gentlemen of this congregation, I have something else to say." He said, "There are a lot of chickens being stolen in this community and it must stop right away," and he said, "The thief sits right in there, and if he don't get up and confess——" he picked up the rock—— "I'll knock his head off his shoulders." The thief's wife got excited and said, "John, John, stoop, stoop, he will throw it, by gad."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Phliadelphia will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Are we now considering the amendments that were introduced by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, and those alone?

The SPEAKER. That is correct. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McClure, is not offering any amendments to section 3.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the proposed amendments are to reduce the tax on beer, as is now in the bill. I ask you to vote down these amendments.

May I for your consideration explain to you that which you already know?

There has been an agreement reached, subject of course to your approval, between His Excellency the Governor, a group of Senators and a group of members of this House, of both parties wherein it was provided that we would go along on a ninety million dollar relief program. The moneys to be raised for that program consisted in part of the moneys that are going to be raised under the terms of this bill. The revenue was computed under the terms of the bill with a tax as it now is. If we endeavor, after I have explained to you just what the tax change is, to postpone this program we are going to delay this Legislature still further, we are going to interfere with the arrangements made for the raising of the revenue, in order to carry out that agreement that was reacned after a great many weeks.

The amendment is as follows: The tax on beer now is one dollar and twenty-four cents per barrel. There is provision made in the bill for a one-half cent tax per pint of sixteen ounces. That is the tax as agreed upon. Mr. Sowers, the gentleman from Philadelphia, now proposes to do this: he wants to provide that where a twelve-ounce bottle is used that the tax shall be less than one-half cent per pint.

I admit and I agree that as the bill now reads where liquor, where beer rather—the wish is father to the thought—where beer is to be sold in twelve-ounce bottles the tax on a barrel of beer would be one dollar and fifty-four cents and not one dollar and twenty-four cents, but only when it would be sold in twelve-ounce bottles or in eight-ounce bottles or in bottles of less than sixteen ounces.

The gentleman from Philadelphia further wants to provide that where there is an eight-ounce bottle it shall have a tax of a quarter of a cent. Now, members of the House, I say that we should not meet with this for this reason: the consumer of beer will not profit from the reduction in the tax. You are going to pay the same amount of money if you have a half cent tax or if you have less than a half cent. The brewer is not going to deduct it from the consumer. He will charge you just as much. Likewise he will do the same with respect to bottles of less than eight ounces. For that reason and for that reason alone, I say that the proposed amendments would mean that we are giving moneys back to the brewers, and there is no reason that I know of why we should so do.

The second reason, if I may be guilty of repeating, is that you will be breaking an agreement that was reached. When I say that I am mindful of the fact that those of you who were not participants in the agreement did not make the agreement, but the agreement, I think, meets with your approval. It provides for the raising of sufficient monies to carry out the ninety million dollar relief program.

For those reasons I solicit your vote in the negative on the amendments which are offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, and let the brewers pay the tax, because the consumer will never get the benefit of it.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when we drafted legislation relating to beer we had in mind taxing the beer one dollar a barrel. After the Governor asked for a tax of two dollars and eighty-eight cents a barrel we compromised at one dollar and twenty-four cents a barrel. Now by the method of calculation contained in this bill the beer tax is raised to one dollar and fifty-four cents a barrel. Do you want to raise the tax again after we have compromised once?

How does it work out? It works out this way: beer is served in twelve-ounce bottles, and twenty-four bottles are in a case. If the tax is a half cent on a pint, a half of a cent on twelve ounces, then it figures out one dollar and fifty-four cents a barrel. Now, then, porter, which is sold to nursing mothers, is sold in eight-ounce bottles. Do you want to tax that a half cent on eight ounces, which would bring up the tax on porter to nursing mothers and the porter that is sold on the prescriptions of physicians to possibly three dollars and forty cents a barrel?

I submit to you that we compromised at one dollar and twenty-four cents and we should stay put to that promise, and there is no reason why we should again compromise and add thirty cents more a barrel and then add again for eight-ounce bottles two and some cents in addition.

I ask you to vote favorably to these amendments and keep the tax at one dollar and twenty-four cents.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as you all know we have been in session here since January first. We have juggled around with this particular problem quite long enough, I believe, and I think the majority of you agree with me.

Mr. Sowers has said that the original idea of the tax on beer was one dollar per barrel. You all know that that legislation did not succeed. We have come to you today with House Bill 2096 with a tax of one dollar and twenty-four cents a barrel on beer. We placed the item of sixteen ounces or one pint as the minimum upon arriving at the tax of one-half of one cent. We feel with the recognized lowered unit of our money in placing a tax with the cost of printing these stamps and the expenses incidental to the collection of the tax that instead of the State deriving any revenue from the collection of it it would, in fact be losing money.

I am informed that beer generally is not sold in eight-ounce bottles. It is usually sold in sixteen-ounce bottles.

We feel, as I said earlier, that this is a fair, resaonable and decent tax, which has been agreed upon by the different parties in interest in this Commonwealth. I ask you to go along and cut out this stalling, and place this tax on the brewers and get through with this question.

I ask you to vote down the amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Sowers and Mr. Sautter, and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the bill which transfers the Motor Patrol to the State Police. The Sterling Committee in its report recommended the transfer of the Motor Patrol to the State Police. In House Bill No. 22 and in the companion bill submitted by us through the Committee on State Government that same recommendation has been made.

This transfer does not make State policemen out of the Motor Patrol. The bill transfers the Motor Patrol from the Department of Revenue to the State Police, retaining the integrity of the Motor Patrol as a separate unit for the enforcement of the motor vehicle laws and for the protection of motorists on the road.

The set up, as contained in House Bill No. 22, provides for two separate bureaus in the Depratment of State Police, one to be Bureau of State Police and the other to be the Bureau of Motor Patrol.

As the bill was originally drawn it contained salary cuts, which eventually were amended to conform to the Howell resolution, and last week, after the debate on the Howell resolution, we again amended this act, so that the cuts in the salaries of both the State Police and the Motor Patrol do not appear now in the bill and they are reinstated in the place where they were before.

We believe that by transferring the Motor Patrol to the State Police that the Motor Patrol will not lose its identity but that the Motor Patrol will become a more efficient organizaion than it is today.

We also believe that there will be a great saving to the Commonwealth in this transfer. The reason for that lies, first, in this: that at the present time there are maintained two separate schols, a Motor Patrol school and a State Police school. We believe that by a combination of those two schools we can save money. In almost every county in this State there is a duplication of the barracks on the part of the Motor Patrol and of the State Police. I think if you will just look into your own counties or for that matter into Chester county, I know it is true in my own county and as I have traveled over the State I have found it in others, that within a short distance of each other you will find a motor Patrol station and a State Police station. By this combination it will be possible to put the two stations together, reducing the expenses for rent, reducing the overhead of the station and certainly promoting efficiency by the use of fewer men on service there many times.

In addition to that the State Police have a teletype system that goes all over the State. It is now available to the Motor Patrol, but by reason of the set up it can not be very efficiently used. With the combination of these two units under one head the Highway Patrol will, I believe, more often and to greater advantage use this teletype system, which has been used to great advantage by the State Police and which has been placed by the State in operation at a tremendous expense.

I know there has been opposition on the part of the Highway patrolmen to the passage of this bill, and I believe that pressure has been brought upon the members of this House, which is highly improper. I think it is improper for men who wear the uniform and who are in a position to often make things unpleasant for members of the House to take any part in lobbying against a measure of this kind, which is designed for efficiency and economy, and I believe that if we are to allow that sort of influence to enter here we shall have sunk to a very low degree in the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

I, therefore, ask you members in the interest of efficient government and economy, in the promotion of better force to take care of the motorists of Pennsylvania, without in any way impairing their efficiency, without in any way taking anything from their obligations and duties, nor in any way making them a part of the State Police force, to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I arise in opposition of this bill, not because or for the reason that any members of the Motor Patrol have approached me, but because the organized motorists of Pennsylvania have asked me to oppose this bill. I am speaking on behalf of our automobile club, the second largest in the State, with over twelve thousand members, which is opposed to this bill.

There are two different ideas here. The State Police are the law bureau or organization for the State and the State pays for them. The Motor Patrol are the enforcing bureau for the motorists and the motorists pay for them. They do not cost the State anything in taxes. Whatever the Motor Patrol costs is paid by the motorists for their protection.

There may be commendable features in this proposed merger, but believe that if the merger is consummated the time will come some time when a call will come for the State Police, as it has in the past, to quell labor troubles or things of that type, and the Motor Patrol will be taken from the highways, the motorist will be left to the mercy of the law breaker, without any means of protecting himself, because the Motor Patrol, even though it be in a separate bureau, will be out guarding a coal mine or a steel mill or something of that type.

If you will go to the east end of Harrisburg, to the barracks that are there for the Motor Patrol school, you will find that a few years ago it was a mudhole and a dumping ground. The State paid for the building there, but these men who are enlisted or who are in school paid for all the surroundings. They built a swimming pool, tennis courts and an athletic field, and everything came out of the pockets of the students, and not from the State or out of the pockets of the motorists. They are at present filling up the dump to make a playground for the children of Harrisburg.

I believe it is in the interests of the motorists if we keep the Motor Patrol intact and separate from the State Police, and in the name of the organized motorists of Pennsylvania I ask you to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, under the present set up, the Highway Patrol is paid out of the Motor License Fund and the State Police out of the General Fund. If this bill passes and the two departments are merged, which fund will pay the two departments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the fund that will pay the bill of the Highway Patrol is the Motor License Fund.

Mr. NEGLEY. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman if that will still carry on?

Mr. TURNER. Yes, with no additional expenses upon the State.

Mr. Speaker, I might point out to the gentleman from Berks that on page 4 of the bill, in line 11, it says "* * * continue to perform the duties of the State Highway Patrol as now or hereafter provided by law and shall in no case be assigned to State Police duty." It is more emphatic than the law is at the present time. If the Governor of this Commonwealth desired and if what the gentleman from Berks says were true, the Governor of this Commonwealth could order under present conditions the Highway Patrol to do State Police duty.

I might point out to the gentleman from Berks that while he says that the motorists are afraid that the Highway Patrol would be taken away, one of the reasons why I believe that this transfer should be made lies in the fact that I know of many instances within my own county where in the past the Highway Patrol have gone into matters which did not pertain to the Highway Patrol, or their patrolling of the highways of the State, or the enforcement of the motor vehicle code.

I will cite just one instance that flashes into my mind. Recently there was a murder in the city of Chester, and I read in the papers that there appeared at the scene of the murder the police of the city of Chester who, of course, should have been called in, and the State Highway Patrol from their barracks at Clifton Heights, which is some three or four miles away. Now, what the Highway Patrol had to do with a murder case of this kind in a city of the third-class is beyond me.

I believe if the Highway Patrol is brought under the control of Major Adams and given the set up as it is set up here that the integrity of the State Highway Patrol will be maintained far better than it is under present conditions, where they mingle in many things that do not belong to them.

Whereas, Statistics show that seventy per centum of the mercantile business of the Nation is handled and conducted by chain stores; and

Whereas, Seventy-five per centum of the moneys received by chain stores in the smaller cities and localities is withdrawn from such cities and localities and deposited in banks in New York, London and other large financial centers; and

Whereas, The present financial condition of many banks has been brought about by the withdrawing of capital from the smaller centers of population by chain stores and corporations; and

Whereas, If this withdrawal of capital from smaller localities is continued and persisted in, the banks in such localities will soon be unable to continue in business; therefore be it

Resolved, That His Excellency, the Governor, is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon chain stores, insurance companies and other chain corporations to deposit and leave in banks located in the communities from which their receipts are drawn as much thereof as is possible in the conduct of their business to the end that the banks may continue to exist and the business of such communities be preserved and fostered; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to His Excellency, the Governor.

RESOLUTION

JOINT COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE INCREASING COST OF EDUCATION

Mr. WILSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following amendment which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas, The legislation introduced and pending during this Session of the Legislature on school matters has brought to those who have been devoting their time to school affairs a knowledge of the increasing load of taxation for school purposes that is being forced upon the taxpayer; and

Whereas, It has become evident that the property owner can no longer endure the payment of the excessive tax rate that is imposed upon him by reason of the requirements of the school law and that school districts will become bankrupt and their schools closed if no relief is afforded; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three Senators to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and four Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House is hereby constituted a Legislative Committee to investigate the cause of the increasing cost of education to the school districts and methods whereby such cost can be reduced.

Such committee shall make a report of their investigation to the next Session of the Legislature and shall accompany their report with recommendations of any changes it feels would result in lowering the cost to local communities of conducting their schools and with copies of drafts of bills intended to carry out its recommendations.

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

FOREST FIRE EXTINCTION COSTS

Mr. SCOTT presented the following data relative to forest fire extinction costs, by Charles E. Dorworth, Former Secretary of Forests and Waters:

FOREST FIRE EXTINCTION COSTS

What Governor Pinchot Said
What Published Official Records Show

By Charles E. Dorworth
Former Secretary of Forests and Waters

To the Legislature, and the People of Pennsylvania:

In his budget message to the Legislature on January 10, 1933, Governor Pinchot, in asking for $100,000 deficiency appropriation for the cost of controlling forest fires, said:

> "The deficiency appropriation of $600,000 made at the last regular session of the Legislature failed to cover the bills for the 1929-31 biennium by the amount of $73,000. As a result, a further appropriation is required.
> "It may interest you to know that in 1932 there were 4810 fires which cost approximately $163,000 to extinguish, or an average of $34 per fire, as compared with 6790 fires in 1930 costing $676,000, or an average of $100. The cost per fire was three times as much in 1930 as in 1932. That is the difference between professional and political leadership in forestry."

When the foregoing came to my notice, I recognized instantly that it was so misleading because it was so palpably stating only a part-truth, that Governor Pinchot would, in all common fairness, withdraw it or at least tell the Legislature and the people just what the official records actually show.

I have waited more than a reasonable time for him to do this, and since he has not done so I feel that I owe it to the Legislature and to the people of Pennsylvania to set forth facts and figures embodied in the official records of the Department of Forests and Waters.

This I shall do without engaging in personalities, quite content to let the people whose money supports forestry in Pennsylvania decide for themselves whether their Governor was frank and fair with them.

If they decide that he was, then the least that I could and should do would be to apologize to them. And I'll do it. If they conclude, after studying the official records, that the Governor stated only a part-truth, and put in such way as to be unfair and misleading to them, then they may feel that he should apologize to them.

The Governor, or any other citizen, has the fullest right to criticize things set forth in the official records at Harrisburg. It is, I believe, quite generally recognized that a single item in any record should not be picked out for criticism in such manner as to convey the impression that it is typical of the whole record. Common ethics, I have understood, to say nothing of good sportsmanship, requires the stating of the whole record, and this by any critic who wants to be and is fair.

I am not concerned with the Governor's allusion to leadership. It is his privilege to have any viewpoint that may suit his convenience. It may be that his viewpoint on this and many other things is the only perfect one in all the world.

It is quite true that there are different kinds of leadership. One is the leadership that craves front-page newspaper notoriety. How true the old saying, if there were no brass buttons there would be fewer parades.

There is the leadership that sets out to do things, and does them, and is content to let official records speak for themselves.

I regret most sincerely the necessity of my saying that the official published record of the Department of Forests and Waters reveal Governor Pinchot's statement pertaining to forest fire extinction costs as being so incomplete and therefore so misleading that the Legislature and the people of Pennsylvania should have available for careful consideration a more complete and more enlightening statement.

Attached hereto is a summary statement on forest fires compiled from published official reports of the Department of Forests and Waters issued in 1932. Attached also is a summary statement on forest land purchased, taken from the official records. I invite a careful study of these statements. The statement on forest fires will enable the Legislature and the people to determine at a glance whether the Governor stated merely a part-truth that appeared to be to his advantage, and at the same time with-held from them many additional important facts in the same records for reasons seemingly satisfactory to himself.

Now just what are these facts as established by official records—the one fact that Governor Pinchot set forth, and the other facts that he studiously avoided making known to the people.

Governor Pinchot said that the cost per fire was three times as much in 1930 as in 1932 This is nearly true, but not quite so. It instantly becomes apparent that by drawing such a comparison Governor Pinchot conveyed the inference that comparison of other years would be found to show much the same difference. It is to be assumed, of course, that the Governor's statement was prepared with due care.

Common fairness should have prompted Governor Pinchot to say to the Legislature that there were almost two thousand more forest fires in Pennsylvania in 1930 than in any year since forest fire records have been kept in this Commonwealth. And in the same spirit of fairness he should have said that the most unusual and unprecedented summer fire season of that year was responsible for most of the abnormally high extinction cost. These and other explanatory facts about the 1930 fire season are all available in the official records of the Department of Forests and Waters.

Governor Pinchot, as a forester, as a former member of the State Forest Commission, and one-time head of the Department of Forests and Waters, knew only too well when he made his statement that comparisons on the basis of single years with such an uncertain agent as forest fires was unfair to the Legislature and to the people. That he was unfair to me as a former head of the department is of no particular consequence.

However, since Governor Pinchot did make comparisons on the basis of single years, I may be pardoned for observing that he should have honorably stated to the Legislature, and to the people, exactly what the official records show, namely, that in 1926, which was the last year of the previous Pinchot administration, the forest fire extinction cost averaged $60.80 per fire. This cost was almost three times the cost of the first year (1927) of my administration of the department, when it averaged only $23.16.

It might be pointed out, since Governor Pinchot avoided mention of it, that this average of $23.16 in 1927 was the lowest average cost the last thirteen years.

And the Governor could have mentioned also that the average cost in 1932 was more than forty-six per cent. higher than five years earlier, in 1927.

These figures are from the official records. The Governor had these records before him when he prepared his statement. The Legislature, and the people of the State, will not find it difficult to conclude why he picked out two particular years for purpose of comparison, and said nothing about the other years.

Governor Pinchot's request to the Legislature for a deficiency appropriation for forest fire extinction cost brings vividly to my mind that one of my first official acts, after becoming head of the Department of Forests and Waters, was to advise Governor Fisher of the imperative need of a deficiency appropriation for similar emergency costs because the funds provided my predecessor for that purpose had been used up, all but a very few thousand dollars. This was unavoidable so far as my predecssor was concerned, and, with my compliments to Governor Pinchot, I might mention that we honorably viewed it in exactly that light. Happily, the major portion of the deficiency appropriation granted us was not needed and we promptly returned the unexpended balance to the Treasury.

Continuing with the Governor's idea of comparison of single years in forest fire extension cost, the official records show that the average cost in 1928 was $39.32, and in 1929 was $24.06. For some strange reason he did not mention the fact that the average cost per fire in 1932 marked an increase of more than forty per cent. over the average for 1929.

It would have been enlightening to the Legislature and to the people had the Governor told them, as the official records show, that in the last year of the previous Pinchot administration the average damage per fire was $406.69, while in the four years (1927-30) of my service under Governor Fisher the average ranged from $43.32 in 1929, to $174.96 in 1930.

The average per fire of $42.32 in 1929 was the lowest since department records have been kept.

The $406.69 avarage damage per fire in the last year of the previous Pinchot administration was the highest in any year since 1920. These are official figures.

Governor Pinchot, as a forester, will concede, but even if not so, there are many highly rated foresters who do believe, that one of the very best criterions for measuring efficiency of a forest fire fighting organization is the average acre burned per fire.

The records show that the largest area burned since 1920 was in 1923 when the fires averaged 105 acres, and that the best year was 1929 when the fires averaged less than 17 acres per fire. These same official records show that the forest fire damage of 1930 was $1,188,127.29, whereas in 1926 it was $1,186,326.65. So that it would appear that the damage in the last year of the previous Pinchot administration was only $1,800.64 less than in 1930, whereas there were 3,874 more forest fires in 1930 than in 1926.

The lowest total forest fire damage in Pennsylvania since records have been kept was in 1927 when it amounted to $95,735.55, and the next lowest year was 1929.

Through the blessing or blight of Providence, whichever way you care to view it, neither of these years happened to be in a Pinchot administration. Both years happened to be during Governor Fisher's administration.

Governor Pinchot, as an international forester, might find it most annoying, to say to any group of foresters, at home or abroad, that comparison of single years to obtain forest fire statistics is a sound basis, and that such practice gives a true picture of the situation.

I am entirely willing to leave the decision to foresters generally, feeling quite confident what their decision will be.

A very much better and fairer, certainly a much sounder, basis for comparison is to consider the average extinction cost per fire and the average damage per fire during a period such as the past ten years. This includes both the present and the previous Pinchot administrations and the intervening administration (Governor Fisher) for four years. Taking this period as a basis, and taking the official published figures supplied by Governor Pinchot for 1932 in his budget message, it is found that there is a difference of less than $4 in the average extinction cost per fire.

The total forest fire damage during the first Pinchot administrationl was more than $800,000.00 greater than during the whole Fisher administration.

The total forest fire damage during the first year (1931) of the present Pinchot administration (the last year for which published figures are available) was more than $30,000.00 greater than the total damage in not only the first year but the first two years of the Fisher administration.

These facts alone would seem to suggest to the intelligence of the Legislature and the people of Pennsylvania how little Governor Pinchot gave them and how much he concealed from them.

With emphasis upon my expressed belief that it was through no fault of my predecessor who had to work with limited funds, it is nevertheless a fact and one well known throughout the forestry service in Pennsylvania, that when I assumed charge of the Department of Forests and Waters things generally were at an extremely low ebb. Field equipment was in deplorable condition, State houses for rangers lacked common comforts of homes, forest roads and trails were sadly although unavoidably run down, wages in many instances were a disgrace.

Thanks to Governor Fisher, who made no claims to being a forester, and to the substantial help of two splendid Legislatures, we were able to achieve results for Pennsylvan a forestry constituting a march of progress through four constructive years.

As the official records show, we scored a phenomenal record for forest land purchase, acquiring one of the largest areas purchased in any single administrative period in the last twenty-five years.

We purchased during Governor Fisher's administration 296,691 acres, at an average of about $2.88 per acre.

In addition, more than 75,000 acres were contracted for, with approval by the State Forest Commission, but were not actually deeded to the Commonwealth until 1931. These 75,000 acres are therefore credited in the official records to the present Pinchot administration, athough most of the purchase work was done during the Fisher administration.

During Governor Pinchot's first administration, the official records show exactly 632 acres acquired through regular purchases. More than twice this number, or 1300 acres, were added through gifts and as vacant land.

The total acquired during the first Pinchot administration was 1932 acres—the smallest acreage added during any administration since State forest land purchases were begun in 1898.

When I assumed charge of the Department of Forests and Waters practically no land purchasing organization was functioning. It was necessary to develop an entirely new purchasing organization, since practically little or no land had been purchased since 1922. Revival of purchase work involved a tremendous amount of labor in considering the many land offers and field examination of countless thousands of acres. August 24, 1927, the State Forest Commission met and approved a land purchase policy. November 23, 1927, a second meeting was held. During these two meetings nearly 30,000 acres were formally approved for purchase, but the lands could not all be deeded to the Commonwealth in that year.

Salaries and wages, both in office and field, were increased in line with merit. Field equipment was improved to a point never before attempted, at least accomplished. A co-operative financing and construction system with the Highway Department was broadened whereby a forest road building program that excited the envy of other states was made possible. For the first time in the history of the department all forest road work, construction and maintenance, was placed under the supervision of a thoroughly qualified engineer employed by me upon the recommendation of the then Secretary of Highways. State houses for rangers were put in repair and reasonable comforts installed. With the sympathetic co-operation of the then president of the Game Commission and the then Commissioner of Fisheries a better an dmore helpful and more constructive relationship was established among the field forces of the three respectvie departments.

For many years the State Forest School at Mont Alto and the forest school at The Pennsylvania State College, both maintained by State appropriation, had been in operation with resultant duplication of effort and expense. Elimination of this duplication had been deemed advisable by various administrations, in fact back to the days of the late lamented Dr. Rothrock, dean of Pennsylvania forestry. As a common-sense, business proposition we effected a merger of the activities of the two schools.

These are some of the things we accomplished. Call it leadership, or what you may, the knowledge that we achieved worthwhile results is sufficiently gratifying to me.

This and one thing more—a very happy recollection of four years that I was privileged to work with and for one of the finest groups of men and women constituting any branch of service for the Commonwealth.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1450, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object. There is no reason why this bill should go over in order. I now ask that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I understand that my request was seconded.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, a request for a bill to go over in order it requires unanimous consent.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, do I understand that the Senator from Dealware, Mr. McClure, objects to the bill going over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Snyder, that his understanding is correct.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I suggest that we go into conference on this bill. This bill was not properly reported to this body anyway. There was a sub-committee of three appointed and that sub-committee never had a chance to act on this bill, it was reported without their consent.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1450 be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object to the motion. This motion was only for the purpose of further delay. We are approaching the end of the session, and the members of the Senate now well know what is in this bill. They are as able today to decide for the bill or against the bill as they will be at any time in the future. I believe we should have some regulatory measure. The former bill which was passed to the Governor was vetoed by him, and there was no attempt made to pass it over his veto.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, in the first place, it is not true that this motion was made for the purpose of delay. In fact, the purpose of this motion was just the reverse. I think every member of the Senate knows that this bill arrived on the desks at ten-thirty this morning. I also imagine that every Senator on the floor will admit that he has not had any opportunity to read this bill. I would like to say that the members of the Committee on Law and Order know in what manner this bill arrived on the calendar. I think the members of this committee know that this bill in its present form does not exactly appear, at least in my judgment, in the form in which it was discussed at the last meeting of the Committee on Law and Order. I want to go so far as to say that in the Committee on Law and Order a sub-committee was appointed which never did report to the general committee any recommendation; and this morning we find the bill upon the calendar, and even though the members of the Senate are ready to go home—well, here is one man who is not. When we have an important measure of this kind to consider, I want to know why, instead of going along in the regular routine of the calendar, this bill should be immediately called for consideration out of place. Last night I waited until two o'clock to get a copy of the bill for study, and I want the members of the Senate, if they will, to agree that this matter is of sufficient importance to send it back to committee for further study. I marvel at the intelligence, yes, the sagacity of the Senators who can pick up a bill at ten-thirty, and at twelve o'clock, after considering other important matters, decide yes or no on this bill. I have heard personalities; but, gentlemen of the Senate, I prefer to talk about issues rather than men, and I want to have an opportunity for this bill to be understood. In this behalf I want to say that the members of the Senate go back to the Governor with everything he has done; but, while we realize that this is a wet state, we do not want to have any railroading of a matter without any opportunity to deliberate. So then let us give him what he wants. I want this motion passed because you will agree that we have had no opportunity to study it. Some of the members say that I presented this motion for delay. Well, if delay is necessary to legislate wisely for the people of the Commonwealth, I am for delay. I hope the members of the Senate will vote favorably on my motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill is regularly upon the calendar. It was introduced, referred to committee at least once or twice, reported out, read at length three times on three separate days, and is now on final passage. I do not profess to know all of the proposed changes in this bill. I do not profess to know that every line in the bill is correct. The bill is not a hundred per cent. satisfactory to me, and I do not believe it is satisfactory in full to every Senator on the floor. But I do know this, that it is a regulartory measure; and I will vote for anything that will regulate the sale and flow of beer in this Commonwealth and help to get from the people who are selling this beer the taxes which are due the Commonwealth for the support of our starving people, and I think it is a shame and an outrage if this bill is delayed by a motion to recommit. I ask the Senators to vote for the measure, and let it be vetoed; and if the bill is vetoed or not passed by the House, the responsibility will be theirs and not ours.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I agree with this motion—at least I agree in part—because I do not think it is right and proper that this bill be voted on at this time. As soon as I was able to secure a copy of this bill, I started to study it, and I have not been able to read over all of the bill up until the present moment. This is a bill of very vital importance, and I think it should have serious consideration, and I think it should have very, very full debate on the floor of the Senate. As far as I am concerned, as far as I have read it, I am perfectly willing personally to vote, because I have made up my mind with respect to the bill. But I know there are many Senators who have not been able to consider it fully, and therefore I hope that this motion will prevail, or if it does not prevail at least a time will be fixed later in this day at which the bill may be voted upon.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, if the Senator will withdraw his motion, I will ask that it go over, and will call it up at four-thirty as a special order.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

SENATE BILL No. 1450 SPECIAL ORDER AT 4.30 P. M.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1450, entitled:

be made a special order for four-thirty today.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Senate Bill No. 1450, entitled:

An Act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt brewed and vinous and fruit juice beverages as herein defined providing for the licensing of the manufacture sale transportation and distribution of such beverages imposing license fees and providing for collection and distribution of revenue therefrom restricting ownership and interest in licensed places making appropriations providing penalties and repealing existing acts

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, in connection with this bill I merely desire to make the statement that, inasmuch as House Bill No. 1426 was defeated in the House last night, which, according to the assumption in the minds of some of the members of the Senate places the Highway Patrol under the jurisdiction of the State Police, and that bill has been defeated, Senator McClure has agreed to have striken from the calendar No. 1030, which we will reach later, and in that event House Bill No. 1788 is in shape for passage. You will not on page 2, section 3, it states this: "As much of the money from time to time in the Motor License Fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Revenue for the proper conduct of its work in titling and registering motor vehicles, trailers and tractors, licensing the operators of vehicles, and enforcing the laws regulating the registration, titling and operation of vehicles upon the highways, and for the collection of liquid fuels taxes as follows: (a) For the payment of the salaries, wages or other compensation," and so forth. Then we come to section (b): "For the payment of the salaries, wages or other compensation, board, lodging, uniform, arms and equipment, and their maintenance and traveling and other necessary expenses of State Highway Patrolmen, provided"—if House Bill No. 1426 had passed; but, inasmuch as it was defeated in the House last night, it has absolutely no meaning and does not affect this bill, because you know the proviso was this: "this clause shall not authorize any appropriation for such purposes to the Department of Revenue if the State Highway Patrol is by law placed under the administration of the State Police, but said appropriation shall be available for like purposes to the State Police, but not in excess of the amount limited by any other law." And No. 1426 having failed, and that bill would have placed, at least in some respects, the Highway Patrol under the same category as the State Police, therefore this proviso falls and the State Highway Patrol remains as it now is and the State Police remain; and Senator McClure has agreed, when we reach No. 1030, to have it stricken from the calendar. So I ask the members of the Senate to vote for this bill.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1324 (House Bill No. 1888), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" extending the time within which school districts of the second class may levy their taxes conferring jurisdiction upon certain courts to review the budgets of school districts of second third and fourth classes and relating to the effect of the institution of such proceedings upon contracts agreements undertakings and the tax levy made during their pendency.

be recommitted to the Committee on Education.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President and members of the Senate, this bill has nothing to do with beer regulation. I make that statement so the members of the Senate might know I am talking about something else. If the members of the Senate will refer to page 3 of this bill, they will find a provision which would permit two hundred and fifty or more freeholders, or holders of twenty-five per cent. of the property assessed for school purposes, to do something which has never been permitted in the State of Pennsylvania. Explanatory provisions make an attempt to say that under this bill these persons or the owners of the real estate may petition the court of common pleas after the school budget has been made by the school directors or the tax levied to review both the budget and tax levy. That would not be so bad if it were not for the fact that it would be placing in the hands of the courts a power which under the provisions of the constitution courts were never permitted to have. In addition to that, if an appeal would be taken to the Supreme Court of the State as required by the bill, those of you who are acquainted with procedure would know there would be a delay of six months or possibly a year. In the meantime the school districts of the second, third and fourth class in effect could not do any business. You will understand why that is when I tell you that on the top of page 5 there is a provision that the filing of a petition against the budget or tax levy, or rather for an appeal to the Supreme Court, should not act as a supersedeas. That, in ordinary language, I think means this: That the school district, as much as it might wish to break that, would be permitted to go ahead in its routine matters just as though no appeal had been taken to the Supreme Court. But there is a contradictory provision following, that contracts which are undertaken relating to any items in the budget, however, may be cancelled. In other words, you will see it is all tied up by litigation. The school districts would be tied up by litigation. I do not know the proponents in the Senate, but right now I notice a printer's error on page 5, line 19, and the printers and proponents of the bill may wish to do something about that. But if you will refer to the last section, to section 2635, you will find this astounding provisions: "Any contract, agreement or undertaking which relates to an item of the budget which has been attacked in the petition and which shall be entered into during the pendency of the proceedings shall be cancelled or made to conform to such budget." It might be well for the lawyers in the Senate to consider that provision. I think you will agree with me that this cannot be done by law. In other words, I think you will agree that the principle is bad, and the proponents of the bill, I think, will agree, if the bill gets the attention it deserves, it will have to go over anyhow because of the printer's error.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1339, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirty-seven of the act approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. Whereas, A new system of safety signals for use on motor vehicles has been invented for which is claimed the saving of many lives and thousands of wrecks annually, the prevention of the loss caused by collisions and the addition of fifty per centum of safety to travel on the Nation's highways; and

Whereas, The system provides for the removal of red lights from the highways when and where there is no danger and puts them on the road only when and where there is danger; and

Whereas, The question of the adoption of such a system and the incorporation thereof into our Motor Vehicle Code is worthy of the study and consideration of those charged with keeping the highways safe; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Bureau of Motor Vehicles of the Department of Revenue of the Commonwealth is hereby requested to make a careful study of the use of the Universal Uniform Automatic Safety Signal System on all vehicles and of similar systems having as the basis thereof the use of red lights only in case of danger, and if convinced of its value in making travel more safe, to use its best efforts to secure the adoption of such system by other States or by the Federal government in order to make the system uniform throughout the Nation; and be it further

Resolved, That the said Bureau of Motor Vehicles make a report to the next Session of the Legislature of the result of their study, the conclusion arrived at regarding such systems and the effort, if any, made by the Bureau to secure the adoption of the system by other States or by the Federal government; and be it further

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF RELIEF

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. PARKINSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the Senate, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, Answers to letters forwarded to the press of the Commonwealth have revealed that in the administration of relief to the unemployed in the Commonwealth there is lacking a comprehensive social service including proper investigation of relief applicants and a workable work-relief program and provisions for rehabilitation, and that a very serious grievance in the administration of such relief is the lack of proper co-ordination of flour, medical, milk and shelter relief with food; and

Whereas, In every county of the Commonwealth, many are receiving relief who are not entitled to the same, because they are congenitally disinclined to work, have sufficient funds or incomes to sustain themselves without relief, or could well get along without relief, and that in addition thereto, there are many who, by reason of pride, abstained from asking for relief; and

Whereas, An investigating committee clothed with proper powers of investigation, including the right to pry into other sources of income or resources of those applying for relief, would result in the saving to the Commonwealth of much money now needlessly used for this purpose, thereby allowing more funds for the granting of adequate relief to those in actual need; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of seven, four of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House and three by the President pro tempore of the Senate for the purpose of investigating:

(1) The needs for relief throughout the Commonwealth;

(2) The methods of administration; and

(3) The number of cases where relief is being given unjustifiably; and be it

Resolved, That said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear and testify for said committee, or to produce any books, papers, records and documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties, to be paid out of an item to be inserted in the General Appropriation Bill.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. ARMSTRONG, from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 1393, entitled:

An Act to amend section thirteen of the act approved the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (P. L. 31), entitled "A further supplement to the act regulating elections in this Commonwealth," as amended, providing that when the authorities of any county shall have provided a place for the safe keeping of ballot boxes, they shall after each election be delivered at such place to the sheriff.

An Act creating a commission to study the laws relating to poor districts and to draft such new laws as may be necessary to revise and codify such laws and establish State supervision over poor boards.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1285 (House Bill No. 2010), as follows:

An Act establishing a court of record in the county of Allegheny for control care and treatment of delinquent neglected and dependent children under sixteen years of age defining their jurisdiction powers and duties and regulating procedure therein providing for the transfer of certain powers functions and duties from other courts providing for the election of judges thereof the appointment of probation officers other necessary staff officials and assistants providing for housing of same and providing for detention facilities

Whereas The public welfare demands that children should be guarded from association and contact with crime and criminals and the ordinary process of the criminal law does not provide such treatment and care and

Whereas Experience has shown that children lacking proper parental care or guardianship are led into courses of life which may render them liable to the pains and penalties of the criminal law although in fact the real inerest of such child or children requires that they be not incarcerated in penitentiary and jail as members of the criminal class and

Whereas It is important that the powers of the court in respect to the care treatment education and control of delinquent neglected and dependent children should be clearly distinguished from the powers exercised in the administration of the criminal law that those powers be such as may secure for each child under its jurisdiction such care guidance education and control preferably in his own home as will conduce to the child's welfare and the best interests of the State and when such child is removed from his own family to secure for him custody care education and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by his parents and that such powers be established in recognition of the principle that children under the jurisdiction of the court are wards of the State subject to the discipline and entitled to the protection of the State which may intervene to safeguard them from neglect or injury and to enforce the legal obligations due to them and from them and

Whereas In the more populous districts where the number of delinquent neglected and dependent children is large their intrests can best be safeguarded and the public welfare more adequately promoted through a court that is presided over by a judge who is chosen for that particular position because of peculiar qualifications and who may in security serve in such capacity over a period of years therefore

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO STUDY SCHOOL TAX COLLECTIONS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Appropriations:

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, It appears that school tax collections during the school year ending July 1, 1933, will be only about sixty-five per cent of the normal collections, and it is estimated that the collections for the school year ending July 1, 1934, will be only fifty per cent of the normal collections; and

Whereas, State appropriations to school districts in the general appropriation bill now before the Legislature have been cut approximately ten per cent; and

Whereas, It appears that by reason of this tremendous loss in the revenue of school districts due to the decrease in the State appropriation and the decline in school tax collections, many school districts will be unable to open their schools in September, 1933, and probably as many as 500 school districts will find it necessary to close their schools before the end of the next regular school term; and

Whereas, Such closing of the schools of the Commonwealth will not only do permanent injury to the preparation for citizenship of the girls and boys now in our public schools, but also stop school expenditures for salaries, wages, supplies and plant maintenance, and thus add to the serious relief problems in many areas; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a special committee of the General Assembly be appointed, three by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and three by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to confer with the Governor of the Commonwealth and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, relative to measures that should be taken to make it possible to keep the schools of Pennsylvania open during the next fiscal biennium on a reasonable basis of efficiency and to report back to the General Assembly not later than Monday, May 1st, their findings and recommendations.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears objection.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill with reference to these amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the sponsor of this bill whether these amendments are his own amendments or agreed upon by the Committee of Law and Order?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, these are the amendments prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau and by the Attorney General.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, that is not a response to my question. Are these his own amendments or the amendments agreed to passed upon by the Committee of Law and Order?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the principal amendment occurs on page six, line seven, where the word "may" is changed by these amendments to "shall," making it mandatory upon the county treasurer to grant licenses.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, that still does not answer my question. Perhaps the Senator does not care to answer.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I offered these amendments today. Does that answer the Senator's question?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, no. I would like to ask whether these amendments were not agreed upon by the Committee on Law and Order?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McCLURE, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, when this bill was put over until four-thirty today as a special order of business, was it not the understanding that we were to have a meeting and agree on some amendment in the Committee on Law and Order?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, that was the understanding, I believe.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, then why was not the meeting of the members of the committee called to find out whether they had any amendment?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I am not a member of the Committee on Law and Order, and know nothing about their arrangements.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for amendment.

The PRESIDENT. There are amendments pending here.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object to this motion.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I believe we are wasting a lot of time in regard to this bill, and what we ought to do is to get together and get our minds together so that a bill can be framed that will meet with the Governor's approval. After all, we are satisfied with our experience of this session that we cannot pass this beer bill against the veto of the Governor—we do not have the vote to over-ride the veto—and I for one do not propose to come back here week after week and accomplish nothing. Now, it seems to me that the Committee on Law and Order should have this bill and go over the amendments and confer with the Governor and reach an agreement where we can all be satisfied. And for that reason I object to these amendments, and will support the motion made by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne, that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order so that it can be put in proper form and proper shape so we can vote upon it and have it approved by the Governor.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the amendments are not pending before the Senate, inasmuch as unanimous consent has been refused.

Mr. President, I move that the Senate go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering special amendments, the amendments just read from the desk.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

The Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole. Mr. TRAINER in the chair.

The CHAIRMAN. The Committee of the Whole has before them Senate Bill No. 1450, entitled:

An Act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt brewed and vinous and fruit juice beverages as herein defined providing for the licensing of the sale trasnportation and distribution of such beverages imposing license fees and providing for collections and distribution of revenues therefrom restricting ownership and interest in licensed places permitting municapilities and townships by vote of the electors to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises and regulating elections for this purpose imposing duties upon county treasurers the Department of Revenue quarter sessions courts district attorneys legislative bodies of political subdivisions of the State and election officers providing penalties and repealing existing acts

Whereupon, the Committee of the Whole rose, the President (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon), resuming the Chair.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, the Committee of the Whole having had before it Senate Bill No. 1450, entitled:

An Act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt brewed and vinous and fruit juice beverages as herein defined providing for the licensing of the sale transportation and distribution of such beverages imposing license fees and providing for collections and distribution of revenues therefrom restricting ownership and interest in licensed places permitting municipalities and townships by vote of the electors to prevent the licensing therein of places where such beverages may be sold for consumption on the premises and regulating elections for this purpose imposing duties upon county treasurers the Department of Revenue quarter sessions courts district attorneys legislative bodies of poltical subdivisions of the State and election officers providing penalties and repealing existing acts have directed me to report that the same has been amended as directed by the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the Committee of the Whole?

It was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The amendment is made as directed by the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the bill will lie over for printing.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary procedure.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, will state his question of parliamentary procedure.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, it is the question of order. In order to get this record in proper form, I wish to state what happened. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, moved that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole. This motion was seconded by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris. In accordance with that, the Senate resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole at that time, but subsequently thereto at no time were any of these amendments for which the Senate resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole submitted to the Senate, and hence my contention is that no amendments were acted upon by the Senate acting as a Committee of the Whole. There was a remark made by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that the bill with the amendments lie over for printing. Now then, I am willing to do this, that that bill with the amendments lie over for printing, providing that tomorrow, when the bill is printed with the amendments, the amendments be taken up one by one in their order by the Senate acting as a Committee of the Whole. Otherwise this committee will not have acted upon any amendments. That bill cannot appear on the floor of the Senate in the amended form as far as the amendments introduced by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, are concerned.

I agree that there is a precedent for the Senate or the House resolving itself into the Committee of the Whole for the consideration of special amendments in regard to the general appropriation bill. But why did the Senate in its wisdom adopt that rule? For this reason: Every general appropriation bill, at least during the ten years that I spent over there in the House, invariably, and I may say without exception, was introduced in the closing days of the session, and that is the reason for that. It is manifest it is just like an omnibus road bill. If it were introduced two or three weeks before the end of the session, every man who has a hospital in his district or an institution that is anxious to get in its appropriation would be attempting to amend that appropriation bill, and the same way with an omnibus road bill, he would be trying to amend it; and therefore your road bill and general appropriation bill come out in the closing days of the session, and in order that amendments might be made, in some cases, in very many cases, amendments are offered. For instance, I am thinking of the Nanticoke State Hospital, if it had not received proper appropriation he would introduce an amendment, and if the Bloomsburg State College had not received proper appropriation, he would introduce an amendment and avoid the necessity then of the bill going back into the committee or delay the bill in its passage. There was a precedent established here a way back in the time of Senator Snyder for the purpose of considering special amendments to the general appropriation bill, the Senate resolving itself into the Committee of the Whole to dispose of the amendment by that motion. And I say with all due regard to the parliamentary ability of the Chair—we all make mistakes, I may be mistaken in this until we get a proper ruling—but, with all graciousness and the highest respect and greatest regard and kindliest feeling for the Chair, I must submit that this ruling was not proper, and that these amendments are not in the bill finally considered by the Senate acting as a Committee of the Whole.

We are in this position, we can either discharge the Committee of the Whole and have the bill go over in its regular order and have the bill printed, or we can have the bill go back into committee with promise of immediate consideration by the Committee on Law and Order so there will be no delay. I for one am not in favor of delaying the bill for one day. I want to say if there is a revenue bill comes over I will vote for the revenue; but I do not think this Senate should be placed in the position of placing in any piece of legislation any amendment when it knows it has nothing to do with the proposition, and you cannot get around the proposition by voting that the Senate resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole and another Senator seconding the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know exactly what the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, is talking about. In the first place, he did not state the premise properly. I did not move that we go into the Committee of the Whole. I moved that we go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering special amendments read from the desk, and when I made the motion that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering the special amendments, that motion carried and it was effective for the purpose of considering the amendments, and those amendments are in the bill, and all that it had to do was to report. What the Senator said about lying over for printing has nothing to do with the subject. All he had to say about the Committee of Law and Order has nothing to do with it. The bill is not in the Committee on Law and Order. It is before the Senate and is in the control of the Senate. And I submit that the point of order raised by the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudemeier, is not well taken, and that the action of the Senate has already inserted the amendments as read from the desk into the bill.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, what was the purpose of the Senate going into the Committee of the Whole?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, for the purpose of inserting the amendments as read from the desk.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, what was the purpose of the chairman of the Committee on Law and Order going to the desk and presiding?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I did not known that he was going to the desk. If he did, I did not see him. That has nothing to do with the question.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, when they go into the Committee of the Whole, are they not supposed to act on the amendments?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, no. When they go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendments, that decision carries the amendments into the bill.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, the Committee of the Whole—when they did not take action on the bill?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it may be some were deaf, dumb and blind, but I do not know who they were.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, they took no action. The chairman proceeded to the desk and went back to his seat, but no action was taken on the amendments.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, is that a question, or is the Senator telling me something?

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, did they take action or vote on any question?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it is all finished business except the report from the committee. It is all done. It is before the Senate.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, what is the Senator's authority?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I refer to Rule 33 on page 1036 of Smull's Hand Book: "When the Senate shall resolve to go into Committee of the Whole on a bill on third reading, except for special amendments the question before the Senate, when the President shall have resumed the chair and the chairman of the committee has made a report, shall be, 'Will the Senate agree to the report of the committee?'"

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, did he ask the Senate to agree to the report of the committee?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the rule does not apply to this case, it says special amendments, and that was my motion, and it carried. It is all finished business.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, says it is all finished business.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is there any motion before the Senate?

Mr. PRESIDENT. The point of order raised by the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, may I at this time refer you to the Senate rules, on page 14, section 19? This rule is as follows: "Committee of the Whole. All bills shall be considered by a Committee of the Whole, unless the rule be dispensed with by unanimous consent. All amendments made in Committee of the Whole, shall be reported by the chairman to the Senate, and shall by him be moved to be inserted, and if adopted, shall then be entered on the Journal. Every bill shall be read at length in Committee of the Whole, and such reading shall be considered one of the readings required by the Constitution."

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that refers to bills on second reading.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I am informed that that section applies only to second reading bills. I respectfully submit that nowhere in that rule is there anything said about second reading bills, and as a precedent for the position that I have taken here today, let me refer to the so-called fair rate trade procedures, when one minute we were in Committee of the Whole and the next minute were out practically during the whole thirty-one sessions; and at that time it was ruled time and time again that amendments that were submitted to the Committee of the Whole had to be read one after the other and acted upon. Why, if this were the procedure, any amendment that would be objectionable, instead of being able to take them up seriatim, all that would be necessary, if somebody made objection to the Senate that the measures were objectionable, the only thing that would be necessary to have those amendments inserted in the bill and embodied therein would be for one Senator to move to resolve the Senate into the Committee of the Whole and another Senator to second the motion. Now then, what position would the Senators be placed in? Some of those amendments may be perfectly proper and agreeable, but under this rule all the amendments would have to be inserted because there was no amendment taken up separately in the amendments acted upon, but by one motion, that the Senate resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, seconded by another Senator, is it the thought of the Chair that these amendments become part of that bill? If it is, I for one, if I live long enough to be here next session will do everything in my power to have an iniquitous rule of that type removed from the rules of the Senate, because it would be a manifest effort to have foisted upon the people of the Commonwealth that which their representative had no opportunity to act upon in order.

I insist, Mr. President, upon a ruling upon the point of order raised.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the motion by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to go into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of special amendments carried with it the amendments.

The question now is will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, now, if I may, I want to move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I object to the motion made by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Coyne.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I hope this motion will not prevail. This bill has been in that committee quite a number of times, in my judgment a sufficient number of times, and the purpose of some of these people is that we are not going to get away from here until this bill is passed, has passed in proper shape. I know this, that the Commonwealth is losing from ten to twenty thousand dollars a day every day this bill is not passed. It may be there are interests combined here who are trying to keep this bill from passing week after week, month after month, in order that they may not have to pay the tax to the Commonwealth in order that there may be money to keep people from starving and for the unemployed. This bill has been duly considered and re-considered. It is not a hundred per cent satisfactory to me; but it is a fair bill, it is perhaps the best bill we could get at this session. Now let us take the best we can get and get through and go home. We have heard about the constitutional rights of the members of the Legislature, but that very Constitution you have referred to gives the Governor of Pennsylvania the right of veto, and that carries one-third of the members of the Senate and some sixty-six votes in the House. That is the Constitution just as much as our constitutional rights entitle us to pass this bill, and if we do not like those vetoes, we have the right to pass these bills over the Governor's veto. But I have not seen very much of it done, and I do not believe we will see much of it done at this session. Let us pass it and put it on the Governor's desk, and if he sees fit to veto it and we go home, the responsibility is his. Up to this time the responsibility is ours, and so far as a revenue measure connected with it is concerned, let us shove that responsibility from our shoulders to the Executive Chamber, and the burden will not be upon us to answer to our constitutents why we have delayed this measure passing so long with the possibility of not having any regulatory measure or any revenue measure passed. I do not think there is a man in the Senate who wants to leave without seeing a bill passed for regulating the sale and flow of beer. I do not believe there is a man in the Senate who wants to go home without passing a revenue bill. But I want to say there are special interests in the State who do not want to see either, and today they have made out pretty well with us. They have blocked every move we made. We have taken enough of it today. Let us pass the bill in the best shape we can and go home with the satisfaction that we have done all that the representatives of the people can do.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I think that the value and the importance of the amendments just read are greatly exaggerated. There are only two amendments, in spite of the fact that several pages of amendments have been read. Most of them are clerical errors and are amendments of no great consequence. The two amendments in this bill are in the amendments read, and are changing the word "may" to "shall" or "shall" to "may." There was a serious mistake made in the bill, which provided that the county treasurer may issue licenses, which would put the county treasurer in a position of refusing any license he may care to. That was a bad feature, and it would have given the county treasurers of the sixty-seven counties of this State the right to issue licenses to whom they please. That is the correction, and the only major correction, in spite of all the typewritten pages read. The object was to have the district attorney and county treasurer join in the revocation of any license—just the two things. Some persons have said that they have not had any chance to study the amendments. The Attorney General is here, the sponsor of the bill is here, Senator McClure; and there is no man in this State who cannot understand what this means. Each of those is a serious defect, and the other is of no consequence. Another thing it carries is that the license fee goes to the local community. A third amendment of the bill is that it keeps the money from the local communities in such shape that it could be used for local relief.

I want to say in passing there has been too much delay in this session, and those who are responsible for the delay in the revenue, in the tax on beer, are responsible for keeping food out of the mouths of the hungry and employment from those unemployed. It is one of the crimes of this Legislature, and those who are responsible for delaying the revenue can be charged with starving the poor and hungry of this country and this state.

Mr. SNYDER. Mr. President, I understood this was a motion to recommit, and the discussion has been on anything but that, and I want my colleague to be set straight. I think the Senator will remember that I made the very same motion, and that was to recommit the bill. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, requested that the motion be withdrawn until four-thirty this afternoon. I certainly would agree to something like that. The delay of one day would not make very much difference, and I supposed the purpose of the request was to have a vote upon the bill this afternoon; and I think it was the assumption of quite a few of the Senators. My distinguished colleague, Senator Coyne, was under the impression there would be a meeting held by the committee or sub-committee and it would be discussed. We had no knowledge that amendments were being introduced by anybody. If I was in error, if I was under a wrong impression, then I should have fortified myself with perhaps ten or twelve other amendments to really strengthen the bill. It should be strengthened. It does not come with good grace from anyone, I take it, since we have been here since January, to condemn any of us who are sincerely opposed to the bill to say we are delaying if I should switch from the question and simply say, "I am busy." There has been nothing but delay and juggling of measures; and if my distinguished colleague from Bucks wants to throw out the inference that some of us represent special interests or special privileges in really fighting for what we believe to be good legislation for the State of Pennsylvania, I think if he would try to bring that to me personally I would say, how could an insignificant Democrat from Lehigh county be interested in any special interests? I do not believe that would be possible. The statement has been made that this delay is doing serious damage to the question of unemployment relief. The members of the Senate know that that is not a fair statement, because it is not a true statement. It is not a revenue measure. We know where the revenue measure is. It is over in the House, and there is not a man here who does not want it to come over here. This revenue provided for in this bill goes to the counties and municipalities, and a negligible part goes to the state to cover the expense of administration.

Now then, having had a delay, there are some amendments in my mind, and I want to say honestly and sincerely right now that if I had known this measure was to be handled this way, if I had had any suspicion that it would be amended of four-thirty this afternoon, I am frank to say I would have had some amendments myself, and there might have been further delay. The only thing I am pleading with the Senate for is that this bill be recommitted for just a day, that this motion should prevail until all of us, as Senator Aron said, can find out, and that there might be afforded to everyone of us who are presently opposing this bill the opportunity to consider this matter. If it is a matter of two days or three days delay, when well done, what is the delay of a week? They are blaming us all over the state for delay. I won't admit to the charge of delay, or admit to the charge that I am representing some special interest; but I will only admit that it is my honest conviction that this bill is only half cooked. It is not ready to be on the floor. Therefore have it recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order and get it into shape.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as soon as the revenue bill came into this Senate, much as I disliked it, I voted for it, and I voted for it so frequently that I was as sick of the bill as I was of the beer that was issued without any regulatory measure.

Now, this is not a revenue measure, and I do not agree with a certain member of this Senate that we can be charged with delaying money that may come in that we may use for the unemployed. As a complete answer to that charge and for any request for delay of a day or two in the bill, I call attention to the fact that this bill does not become operative until July 1st, and no revenue either from licenses or otherwise can come into the coffers of the State or the municipalities or anything else, and I call attention to the fact that this bill ought to be submitted to the Senate for further consideration and ought to be amended properly. I agree that the amendments offered today are immaterial. I was told when I came up here I was coming up to get a good education, and I have gotten a liberal education from this session. And I say this bill is doing something that was never done before, and that is that a corporation can open up as many places to sell beer as it pleases. One corporation can open up fifty stores under the provisions of this bill. And I feel, so far as the people I represent are concerned, that that condition should not be tolerated, and therefore I want to say if that condition is not stricken from the bill I want it amended. There are half a dozen other instances in this bill in which it ought to be amended. In one instance the bill gives descriptive words. In one instance it deals with licenses, and in five or six other instances it deals with licensee and nobody under this bill can know what licensee is. I do not think we ought to be put in the position we have been in twice before of having bills misprinted in a way that changes the context and then be put in the position of asking to have a particular bill amended. I think we ought to go over the bill properly, and if we are going to regulate, we ought to regulate properly for all and not for some, and not be charged with not taking money from some and taking it from others for the unemployed, because this bill gives privileges to a few and takes them from many.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I want to tell the members of the Senate I have no intention of delaying or stopping revenue from coming into the municipalities or the state government. I also want to tell the members of the Senate that I do not represent any special interests—never did. I suppose there is a good reason for it—they did not want me to. Nobody ever called upon me to represent them outside of my people in my district. The Senator that inferred there was a special interest represented is, I suppose, the one man who represents the greatest special interest in the Senate; and I do not suppose there is any man in the Senate who has not done more for the unemployed. He is long in mercy and short in charity. And I am afraid if this goes further they will have bleeding hearts, and I do not know of anybody that can give them transfusions if they have lost blood from this bill. You hear so much about the unemployed and the poor, but it is safe to say that every member of this Senate is interested in the people of his locality where he lives, and I assure you agan that I am not here to delay any revenue for the State or the county. I am here to get a square deal for this bill and others. We did not get it on this bill. We were supposed to have a sub-committee go over this bill and report to the other committee, and they would have a meeting and report this bill out. But it was not done in the proper way. I do not object to the few amendments offered by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure. They may be all right. I have not had a chance to look them over. They may be all right, and perhaps we should adopt them, but I think the bill ought to go back to committee.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I merely want to correct the statement of my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, as to the effective date of this bill. He said this bill would not become effective until July 1st. The fact is it will become effective in June; and I am very much afraid that if we continue as we have been doing in the past it may be past June 1st before we pass this bill.

I also desire to inform him that no large corporation can have a monopoly. It can have only one distributor in any one city, town or borough.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, is it not a fact that this delay has been occasioned by the veto of a measure which went through both the House and the Senate covering this very situation?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, to what measure he refers.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, the Sowers-Conner beer bill, which is the only one passed for the regulation of beer, probably a month ago, and that has been vetoed, and that has been the cause of some of the delay.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I can not say it was the cause of the delay. There was such a bill passed, which I voted for.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, it was vetoed.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it was vetoed, and is a matter of record.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I fear it is going to occur to some of the Senators that this bill has never been before the Committee on Law and Order. Last Friday I recommitted this bill to the Committee on Law and Order, and on Monday night they held a meeting. They amended the bill in many particulars, and reported it to the floor. Senator Harris has well stated the particular change I have made in this bill today. I also stated it to Senator Aron, that the change occurred on page six, line seven, and the provision is that the treasurer shall grant licenses at the present time. In the bill in the condition in which it was this morning it was "may." I postponed action on this bill this morning because Senator Snyder said he had not had time to read the bill. This bill has been on the desks now, and everyone has had time to read it; and I say to Senator Snyder, if he had any amendments to offer to this bill, he had the same time I had. I also call the attention of the Senators to the fact that this is the only regulatory measure before the Senate or House today, and I fear it is possible for us to adjourn without passing a regulatory measure. And if we do the municipalities of this State will be deprived of many thousands of dollars. I ask the Senators to vote against the motion to recommit this bill.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I want to say there was some remark passed by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, about special interests. I have not seen anything in Harrisburg that looked like it, and I think his remark was out of order, and not worth anybody in this Senate paying any attention to. I want to say if this bill is passed we know that we cannot be charged with trying to hold it back. Let us vote to let it go back to the committee and have the committee hold a meeting tonight or report it out at once.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty-seven Senators voted in the affirmative and five in the negative, whereupon the question was determined in the affirmative.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I feel that certain remarks of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, with respect to the veto power of the Governor should not go unchallenged.

Last Wednesday Governor Pinchot submitted a written message to the Legislature relating to relief for the unemployed and relief for the local tax payer. The bills referred to were prepared in the Governor's office and introduced at his request. A few of these bills are good, some of them are of doubtful expediency, and some of them are vicious.

It is not my purpose to consume the time of the Senate in discussing the Governor's Legislative Program. I would refer to place over the portals of the Executive Mansion the lines which the Earl of Rochester placed upon the bed chamber of King Charles II of England which read:

"Here lies our sovereign lord and king
Whose word no one relies on.
Who never said a foolish thing
And never did a wise one."

The Governor, however, employed a sentence in that message which deserves attention. He said, "I have repeatedly announced that I would not insist on my plan but would accept any other reasonable plan." Stripped of its polite verbage, the Governor here stands forth in the role of Simon Legree cracking the slave driver's whip and saying to the Legislature give me what I want or you will get nothing. And then let us turn to the concluding sentence of that message which reads: "The amazing neglect of the folks back home does not lie at my door." The people of Pennsylvania have now gotten onto Governor Pinchot's curves and they know full well that his attempts to pass the buck to the Legislature of Pennsylvania are idle words.

This brings me to the question which I wish to discuss today, namely, Executive Power vs. Legislative Power. And, I ask in all seriousness whence this new born power in an Executive to dictate not only policies of legislation but also details of legislation?

From my study of Constitutional Government, I know of no example in American History wherein a Governor under the use of the veto power has coerced not only Legislative Policy, but all Legislation. It might be interesting for a moment to consider the true American Doctrine as to the proper use of the veto. I refer to one of America's greatest authorities on Constitutional Law, Thomas M. Cooley, who in his work "Principles of Constitutional Law," page 178 says:

> "The view most commonly taken of the veto power is perhaps that of Mr. Webster, that it is an extraordinary power, to be exercised only in peculiar and marked cases; that it was vested in the President, doubtless as a guard against hasty and inconsiderate legislation, and against any act, inadvertently passed, which might seem to encroach on the just authority of other branches of the government."

The use which Governor Pinchot is making of the veto power is enough to make Thomas M. Cooley and Daniel Webster rise from the dead. Not only, however, is Governor Pinchot attempting to coerce this Legislature into a legislative straight jacket of his own making, but his present course is but another illustration of his contempt for law and order. I know that "Yon Caesar hath a lean and hungry look" and William Shakespeare tells us that "Such men are dangerous." But Governor Pinchot has admitted his limitations from the Rostrum of the Senate. He cannot coerce the Legislature because under the constitution, the governing power in Pennsylvania is the legislative power.

I fear that possibly some Senators and many members of the House of Representatives have failed to grasp this truth. Under the Constitution, the powers and prerogatives of a Governor are very limited. The vast powers which he exercises have been granted to him by the Legislature, or in part they are usurped. Under the present Chief Executive, who possesses the lust for power of a Caesar and a Napoleon combined, they vault to the zenith of monarchial splendor. But these powers possessed by the Governor are merely legislative grants. The Legislature, when it desires, can strip the Governor of his emoluments of office; can reduce his salary to a point that hurts; can take away his office force and deprive him of all authority except what is expressly reserved in Article Four of the Constitution. Thus it is apparent that about 99.9 per cent. of the authority actually exercised by Governor Pinchot can be withdrawn by legislative power.

On the other hand, legislative power is almost limitless. As a great Republican jurist, Chief Justice Sterrett said in Powell vs. Commonwealth, 114 Pa. 265:

> "In creating a legislative department, and conferring upon it the legislative power, the people must be understood to have conferred the full and complete authority as it vests in and may be exercised by the sovereign power of any state, subject only to such restrictions as they have seen fit to impose, and to the limitations which are contained in the Constitution of the United States. The legislative department is not made a special agency for the exercise of specially defined legislative powers, but is intrusted with the general authority to make laws at discretion."

But a more forceful declaration of legislative power is contained in the deathless opinion of a great Democrat, Chief Justice Black in the case of Sharpless vs. The Mayor of Philadelphia, 21 Pa. 147, an opinion which will ever live as one of the most brilliant gems in the galaxy of judicial decisions adorning Pennsylvania's judicial history. After defining the limitations to legislative power contained in the "bill of rights," with which everyone is familiar, and other limitations contained in the Constitution of the United States,

Chief Justice Black said:

"If the Legislature 'does any of these things, the judiciary claims, and in clear cases has always exercised, the right to declare such acts void.

"But beyond this there lies a vast field of power, granted to the legislature by the general words of the constitution, and not reserved, prohibited, or given away to others. Of this field the General Assembly is entitled to the full and uncontrolled possession. Their use of it can be limited only by their own discretion. . . . To me, it is as plain that the General Assembly may exercise all powers which are not properly legislative, and which are not taken away by our own, or by the federal constitution, as it is that the people have all the rights which are expressly reserved.'"

The power of one Senator is great. The power of twenty-six Senators united and in accord forces an absolute check upon any change in government. The power of a working majority in both Houses with a friendly Governor is supreme. It makes for good government. A working majority in both Houses with a tyrannical Governor only creates a deadlock. But a two-thirds working majority in both Houses, raises legislative power to the point of omnipotence and can crush a tyrannical Governor to powder.

No wonder, therefore, with his eye upon the Senatorial toga at Washington, the Governor of Pennsylvania has looked longingly to Democrats and with open arms has welcomed them to the Legislature of Pennsylvania. He is reported to have tried to dicker with a few Democratic leaders, hoping with vain promises of reward to cause them to lead their associates as lambs to the slaughter. I warn my Democratic friends that if they deal with Governor Pinchot, the hope which they now have, arising from success in a great national campaign, will turn to dust and ashes; and they will wither before a blast of popular fury as the leaves of autumn, before the winter's gales.

Party lines must be broken in this General Assembly. The Republican, the Democratic and the Socialist party stand in part, at least, for like ideals; for reduction of cost of government; for the elimination of corruption, waste and extravagance in public office; for cutting the public payroll; and for the reduction of the burden of taxation. Opposed to the program of all parties stands Governor Pinchot. With honeyed words he proclaims lofty ideals while his every act belies his words. He has publicly presented a budget, reckless and rank in its extravagance. He seeks to strangle the great fiscal departments of government, embedded in the constitution, with officers elected by the people, and to raise to the zenith of power the utterly useless and extravagant department of revenue. Wherever possible he grasps a straw or secures a job to advance his personal fortunes and to further build and expand the inefficient and extravagant Pinchot Machine.

I again quote from the eloquent opinion of Chief Justice Black heretofore refered to:

"There is nothing more easy than to imagine a thousand tyrannical things which the Legislature may do, if its members forget all their duties; disregard utterly the obligations they owe to their constituents, and recklessly determine to trample upon right and justice. But to take away the power from the legislature because they may abuse it, and give to the judges the right of controlling it, would not be advancing a single step, since the judges can be imagined to be as corrupt and as wicked as legislators. * * * What is worse still, the judges are almost entirely irresponsible, and heretofore they have been altogether so, while the members of the legislature, who would do the imaginary things referred to, would be scourged into retirement by their indignant masters.'"

I like those wordse "Scourged into retirement." To me it is reminiscent of the day 1900 years ago when the "Man of Galilee" entered into the Temple and "scourged" the corruptionists of his day and drove from the Temple those who exchanged money and those who sold doves. Lest we be scourged by our masters, the people, let the Senate of Pennsylvania turn an electric current of legislative power into the temple of official life of Pennsylvania, and "scourge" those who carelessly or recklessly are wasting the peoples' money.

I am talking to you today because Governor Pinchot is clearly understood in Dauphin County. My constituency is unique. On the public payroll at all times are approximately 2500 men and women accredited to Dauphin County. When Governor Pinchot took office in 1931 there were hundreds of men and women on the State payroll who had been there for ten, twenty and thirty years; many of them originally appointed from other counties, who had in the course of time changed their residence and had become Dauphin Countians by adoption. Therefore, we have in Dauphin County, a kind of official class, men and women retained in office because of fitness and not because of politics. They were the back bone, and not the heads of executive departments and bureaus. But all this has been changed. The experts are largely gone. Many of them are walking the streets of Harrisburg seeking jobs and some of them are begging bread. And in their shoes are place-holders, many of them incompetent and useless, so that executive departments exclusively under the Governor are becoming extravagant and tyrannical. Mr. President, I am fighting this fight on the floor of the Senate not only for the rights, but even for the very lives of my people.

Not only must this Legislature afford adequate relief for the unemployed, but we must relieve the burden of local taxation. This Legislature must not adjourn until these ends have been accomplished, and in order to enact this necessary legislation the unreasonable exercise of the veto must be curbed.

The people of Dauphin County have long since recognized the fact that a large part of the ills from which Pennsylvania suffers is due to the fact that we have a Governor who is neither fish nor fowl; one who did not let the people of Pennsylvania know until the vote was half counted whether he was for Hoover or Roosevelt or Cox or Thomas.

I trust that the Legislature of Pennsylvania will consider Dauphin County's appeal and that in the interests of the unemployed and as well in the interests of the over-burdened taxpayer, we may be sure that Governor Pinchot, when this Legislature adjourns, will not find himself on Elba but safely confined on some political St. Helena.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Dear Lord, we would commune with Thee. Yestereven, we saw the unspeakable splendors of the sunset; we saw Thee draw the deep blue curtain across the windows of heaven, and the stars, ancient sentinels of the skies took up their picket duty, and our work was done for awhile. Now Thou hast flooded us again with the golden glory of a new day. We would go forward. Be Thou our guide and stay today.

The people are asking, which way shall I take, and there seems to be no way. Help these Thy servants to be road builders. Give them vision and high courage to build a road across the mud flats of depression, and bridge the chasm of gloom and despair, and span the miasmal swamps of bewilderment, perplexity, helplessness, lawlessness and anarchy, and may the road stretch with easy grade up the hill to normalcy where the gate swings open to peace and plenty.

And may there be shout of joy again in our land, because the leaders have made a way for the people. Amen.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this amendment, as it clearly states, is proposed for the purpose of getting before the House Bill No. 900, entitled "An Act imposing an annual State tax upon each resident of the Commonwealth over the age of twenty-one years for the purpose of qualifying such persons to vote at elections."

It is ordinarily known as the one cent poll tax bill, to make it possible for the unemployed to be qualified to vote, so that they will not have to pay the fifteen or twenty-five or seventy-five cents, as it varies in the different counties.

If you are interested in seeing the unemployed get a chance to vote, I appeal to you to vote for this amendment to the rules. All that the amendment does at this time is to make this resolution a special order of business for twelve-thirty today.

Under the system of adopting the orders of the day that we have been following for the last couple of weeks, this is the only opportunity that I have of making this motion or of getting a motion to discharge a committee before the House.

I, therefore, ask you to vote "aye," and Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

COMMUNICATION

PROTESTING AGAINST OPERATION OF STATE RELIEF

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication which was read by the Clerk as follows:

The Honorable Samuel Stevens, Representative of Westmoreland County, Harrisburg, Penna.

Honorable Sir:

Enclosed is a petition signed by the citizens and taxpayers of New Derry and its vicinity against the further continuance of the present system of giving relief in our State. A copy of this petition has been sent to Senator Benjamin H. Thompson and letters regarding the petition sent to the other five members of the House from Westmoreland County.

This entire section of coal mine operations were denied relief by the paid welfare workers of the State and the local Red Cross Agency of Derry until we, the committee on petition, brought investigators into the district from the Federal government at Washington. We are now handling our own relief and protest in this way against the principle and personnel of the present system of State relief as a fraud and a fake in this part of Westmoreland County.

This petition has followed the fourth monthly meeting to educate the people to the deceit and dishonesty of a paid personnel of the State in the handling of relief denied to them until February of this year.

We ask the support of your influence and vote to bring this matter to the attention of the House. Thanking you for this kindness and wishing you everything that is good, we remain

Respectfully,
Committee on Petition,
R. EMERSON HUNTER,
REV. RAY V. CONWAY,
DAVE NICHOLS.

April 22, 1933.

Representative Stevens:

The signatures to the enclosed petition have been sent to Senator Thompson. He will kindly give them to you for the members of the House from Westmoreland County.

RAY V. CONWAY.

The SPEAKER. The communication will be noted in the Journal and printed in the Legislative Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to make an announcement regarding House Bill No. 456.

The vote by which this bill passed finally and the vote by which this bill passed third reading were reconsidered on April 19th. Amendments were offered at that time. This was in error, because the bill had not been returned from the Governor. The amendments offered were to another bill and did not apply to House Bill No. 456. A resolution has been passed by this House ordering the return of House Bill No. 456 to the Governor without amendment. Therefore, the proceedings are declared null and void by the Chair.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 987

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 2300 (Senate Bill No. 987), Printer's No. 612, entitled

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 79

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 79, Printer's No. 1059.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas The legislation introduced and pending during this session of the Legislature on school matters has brought to those who have been devoting their time to school affairs a knowledge of the increasing load of taxation for school purposes that is being forced upon the taxpayer and

Whereas It has become evident that the property owner can no longer endure the payment of the excessive tax rate that is imposd upon him by reason of the requirements of the school law and that school districts will become bankrupt and their schools closed if no relief is afforded therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That a committee of three Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore of the Senate and four members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House is hereby constituted a Legislative Committee to investigate the cause of the increasing cost of education to the school districts and methods whereby such cost can be reduced

Such committee shall make a report of their investigation to the next session of the Legislature and shall accompany their report with recommendations of any changes it feels would result in lowering the cost to local communities of conducting their schools and with copies of drafts bills intended to carry out its recommendations

The members of said committee shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 74

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 74, Printer's No. 1032.

RESOLUTION REFERRED

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be referred to the Committee on Law and Order.

The motion was agreed to.

RESOLUTION No. 76

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 76, Printer's No. 1056.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1933.

Whereas The Federal Government has recognized the advisability of a shorter working day as the best means of restoring stability in industry therefore be it

Resolved That this House now indorse the principal of an eight hour day and forty-four hour week for women and children in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

MOTION TO COMMIT RESOLUTION

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this resolution be committed to the Committee on Federal Relations.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, this resolution is very brief and its purpose is very obvious. I can see no good purpose to be served by referring it to a committee.

The resolution merely says "Resolved, That this House now indorse the principle of an eight hour day and forty-four hour week for women and children in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." I do not see why any member of this House should wish to dodge a direct vote on that question.

Today the Federal Government is proposing to enact a thirty hour week for men and I do not see why we should object to going on record as indorsing the principle of reduced hours for women and children from the present legal standard of fifty-four to forty-four.

I, therefore, ask you to vote "no" on this motion and to adopt the resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

The ayes and nays were required by Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Hoopes.

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

RESOLUTION

JOINT COMMITTEE TO DEVISE MEANS OF KEEPING SCHOOLS OPEN

Mr. WILSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1933.

Whereas, It appears that school tax collections during the school year ending July 1, 1933, will be only about 65% of the normal collections, and it is estimated that the collections for the school year ending July 1, 1934, will be only about 50% of the normal collections; and

Whereas, State appropriations to school districts in the general appropriation bill now before the Legislature have been cut approximately 10%; and

Whereas, It appears that by reason of this tremendous loss in the revenues of school districts due to the decrease in the State appropriation and the decline in school tax collections, many school districts will be unable to open their schools in September, 1933, and probably as many as 500 school districts will find it necessary to close their schools before the end of the next regular school term; and

Whereas, Such closing of the schools of the Commonwealth will not only do permanent injury to the preparation for citizenship of the girls and boys now in our public schools, but also stop school expenditures for salaries, wages, supplies and plant maintenance, and thus add to the serious relief problems in many areas; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That a special committee of the General Assembly be appointed, three by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and three by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to confer with the Governor of the Commonwealth and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, relative to measures that should be taken to make it possible to keep the schools of Pennsylvania open during the next fiscal biennium on a reasonable basis of efficiency and to report back to the General Assembly not later than Monday, May 1st, their findsings and recommendations.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair will declare a recess until 3 P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and (at 1.25 P. M.) declares a recess until 3 P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 3 P. M.
The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1807, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four) entitled "An act to increase the fees of mercantile appraisers in certain counties of this Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, will the sponsor of this bill explain its purpose?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Center explain to the gentleman from Venango the purpose of this bill?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, many members of this House have come to me, after looking at the title of this bill, and criticized it on the ground of its being a salary raiser, while in reality it is just the opposite.

First of all, this bill does not apply to Philadelphia County nor to Allegheny County. The purpose of this bill is to try and correct an abuse which has sprung up in many of the thinly populated counties of the State. All this bill does is to reduce the mileage from six cents a mile to five cents per mile, bringing it in line with the general economy program of this House and putting the mercantile appraisers on the same mileage as is allowed to many of the other employes of this State.

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Center?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Center permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, doesn't this bill change it from six cents circular to five cents straight on the mileage?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, it changes the mileage allowance from six cents to five cents.

Mr. KINNEY. Six cents circular to five cents straight, may I ask, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, will that not raise the rate?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. No, Mr. Speaker; it is six cents circular at the present time.

Mr. KINNEY. And the bill makes it five cents straight?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. KINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JOHN L. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker, I misunderstood the question which the gentleman asked me. This bill does not change it from six cents circular to five cents straight. It reduces it from six cents circular to five cents circular.

I ask that the motion to recommit be voted down.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. PHILIP STERLING

Mr. PHILIP STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, during the last week the House gave its unanimous consent that I introduce a bill by the provisions of which the business of the House might be facilitated in avoiding the recall from the Governor of bills on his desk where these recalls are made necessary by reason of typographical errors found in the bills after they reach the Governor's desk.

The House this morning passed finally that bill, which appeared on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, House Bill No. 2333, Printer's No. 1007. It will require three Legislative days in the Senate before the measure goes to the Governor for his approval or disapproval, and it occurred to me that the House, in concurrence with the Senate, might make the provisions of that bill equally as effectual if the House now would permit the introduction of a resolution that would do the same thing as the bill already introduced if it became a law.

RESOLUTION

Mr. PHILIP STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read and agreed to.

RESOLUTION

CORRECTING ERRORS IN LAWS

Mr. PHILIP STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That where any law shall have been finally enacted and it shall be ascertained that such law is technically defective in form or contains misspelled words or typographical errors, or the plural or signular appears where the opposite should be used, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, in punctuating and editing such law, shall have authority, with the approval of the Attorney General and the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, to correct the original copy of such law as filed in the Department of State if such correction will not in any manner affect or change the meaning, intent or substance of such law; and be it further

Resolved, That whenever any correction on any law is made as hereinbefore authorized, a notation thereof shall be made on the original copy by the Secretary of the Commonwealth together with his signature, followed by the approval and signatures of the Attorney General and the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections? The Chair hears none, and consent is granted.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. CANNON

Mr. CANNON asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is a known fact that we have had before us ever so often a bill known as the beer bill now in the Senate to be concurred in by that body as a relief measure.

I desire to state that in this nation since April 7th, 1933, beer has been restored to this nation by the honorable and courageous President Franklin D. Roosevelt, whom all here assembled must conscientiously confess is the man of the hour.

As a known fact the State of Pennsylvania is a part of this nation, therefore, we shall do well to remember that much success can be had by settling this question known as beer control for the part which it shall take toward relief, which is very important, as I previously stated before this House.

Relief we shall have in the future, but not by the course taken in the past sixteen weeks. While I still retain the idea that relief is necessary from all angles by this body assembled here for legislation, again I ask in this week, which will actually be the seventeenth week, the least we can do for our constitutents is to follow the Democratic idea this week, for the people, by the people and with the people.

A new deal in Pennsylvania is needed and it is generally felt that a new deal is desirable. Positively we should have a sensible beer bill with conditions improving as rapidly in the nation as time warrants.

Here in this General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania we have had before us numerous bills, bills of importance, some of which I consider to be major issues, which recently after much strife reached their destination; but how?

As the hour of 11.00 o'clock A. M. has again passed; heretofore there has been an honest endeavor by a large percentage of this House to support active legislation which it seems impossible to get before this body, due to various committees which are so involved, whereby a motion agreed to on March 28, 1933, before the members assembled, to discharge the committee after a special order of business for a third reading, passed finally April 4, 1933, to concur with the Senate.

It is a fact that this bill, listed with others, as House Bill No. 65, means a new deal for the people of this Commonwealth. While the people of Pennsylvania look to us for legislation some here may wonder what it is all about, and I dare say another percentage of the members of this House know that the people of this Commonwealth can no longer be fooled. Allow them to have the old age pension put into effect and it shall be in no way a detriment to this State, as a fact it shall prove as much of a success as it has in the states where it has become a law.

The Workmen's Compensation Act is successfully proven to to be a value in this Commonwealth; the old age pension system absolutely will accomplish the same.

In the dying days of this session of seventeen weeks, get busy, follow the honorable, courageous President's methods, show your power, give the people what they desire; and that is the theme of this which I clipped out of last months "Philadelphia Record:"

"Dictator Grundy

"Joseph R. Grundy sets himself up as dictator to deny old-age pensions to Pennsylvania.

"Although the measure was passed by the last Legislature and has an unquestioned majority in this one, Grundy is against old-age pensions—and old-age pensions may be killed.

"Two of his political henchmen, Buckman and Fay, aided by our own Senator Woodward, are smothering the act in the subcommittee of which they are members.

"Success for Grundy means a five-year setback for old-age pensions in Pennsylvania.

"Arch-lobbyist and reactionary, guiding spirit of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, Grundy's chief purpose is the imposition of ever higher tariffs to tax the people for the benefit of himself and other manufacturers.

"His chief dislike is for any social legislation that may tax him and the group he represents for the benefit of the people.

"In this State his power is particularly pernicious because he not only wields great influence in the regular Republican organization, but has a claim on Pinchot for services rendered in the latter's election to the Governorship.

"That may explain why the Governor, although known to favor old-age pensions, has declined to work actively for their enactment.

"Long experience in other countries and other States has shown the superiority, in humanity and cost of old-age pensions over the poorhouse.

"Grundy favors the poorhouse.

"Will the Legislature permit his dictation?"

In conclusion, I desire to lay before this House an appeal for House Bill No. 2038 sponsored by myself in honor due to mothers, which we all had, by designating a day and declaring as Mother's Day the fifteenth day of August as a legal holiday.

Therefore, I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Price, Chairman of the Judiciary Local Committee, whom I approached, along with the few I did not approach, to give the measure consideration, report the bill out of committee as an honor to Mother.

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 2283, Senate Bill No. 100, Printer's No. 556, on page 19 of today's calendar, bills on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Steedle

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2283 (Senate Bill No. 100), entitled:

An Act relating to the relief of the burden of local taxation making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund providing for the allocation thereof to cities towns boroughs and townships prescribing the time manner basis and purposes for and upon which such said money shall be allocated and paid specifying the uses for which said moneys may be expended and imposing powers and duties upon the Department of Highways the Auditor General State Treasurer and on cities boroughs towns and townships and officers thereof and providing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reference to the Williamson Bill I want to offer objections to this bill, because in the first place I do not think it is going to reduce the taxes in the different localities.

It proposes to take nineteen million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars out of the Motor Fund to be divided amongst political sub-divisions, allocating three million dollars to Philadelphia, one million five hundred thousand dollars to Pittsburgh, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to Scranton, one million five hundred thousand dollars to forty-three third-class cities, two million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to nine hundred and thirty-seven boroughs and towns, seven hundred and fifty-thousand dollars to sixty-two first-class townships and ten million dollars to fifteen hundred and eleven second-class townships.

If this bill is enacted into law it will mean only five million five hundred thousand dollars will be left annually for construction and reconstruction of highways on both the rural highway system and the Sproul system, exclusive of such construction as is performed under the provisions of the Federal aid law. But from present indications in Congress it looks as if any Federal aid for highways during the coming biennium is extremely remote.

This bill would eliminate the possibility of taking over any of the following obligations which are now pending or proposed:

1. Connecting links on State highways through boroughs.
2. Township bridges on the Rural highway system.
3. Payment of property damage by the Commonwealth.
4. Any additional State highway mileage in cities.
5. Any additional mileage of township roads proposed as additions to the present State highway systems.

The cessation of construction would immediately necessitate the release of the greater part of thirty-five thousand men now being given employment as a matter of work relief, under the Department's program of low cost road construction. Under the administration's policy of employing only such labor as is approved by the local relief boards, these men and their families would immediately become charges upon public charity. It is an unquestioned fact that work relief is the best form of public relief which has yet been devised. The honest workman continues to retain his self-respect and his desire to labor for his support rather than to subsist on the dole.

Under the policy of work relief the Commonwealth also obtains for its people value received in the form of beneficial and lasting public improvements of a type which directly further the development of the business and resources of the Commonwealth.

It is true that the bill provides that this nineteen million and a quarter dollars shall be spent only for road, street and bridge work. The proponents of the bill may, therefore, say that a program of public work relief will accordingly be carried on.

The undesirability of this proposition can be seen at a glance, when it is considered that the money proposed to be appropriated and the responsibility for its administration in work relief programs will be distributed to more than twenty-five hundred political sub-divisions of the Commonwealth. Each of these sub-divisions must be responsible for working up and carrying through an independent program of public improvement. Such de-centralization of effort is highly impractical and uneconomical.

It cannot be seriously open to question that the Commonwealth, with its trained highway organization, resources and experience, can obtain greater value for each dollar expended than could the local political sub-divisions.

With the single exception of Philadelphia the same money would be expended by this trained organization, in the same political sub-divisions, with much greater benefit to the public in general and the citizens of those political sub-divisions, if the bill is not enacted into law.

As opposed to such a raid on the funds collected from the motorists, which will return a doubtful benefit to the citizens of the Commonwealth, a well-balanced program of highway work relief benefiting all of the political sub-divisions of the Commonwealth may be carried out with the assumption of the following proposed additional obligations:

1. The taking over of fifty-three thousand miles of township roads in townships of the second-class for maintenance and construction by the Commonwealth, thereby affording immediately relief to the taxpayer of at least eighteen million dollars in the biennium, and the expenditure in maintenance alone upon these township roads a sum greater than that included for the townships of the second-class in the Williamson Bill.

2. The taking over of twenty-five per cent of the mileage of roads in first-class townships. This will relieve first-class townships of an expenditure of approximately five hundred thousand dollars each biennium.

3. The taking over as State Highways of approximately five hundred and sixty miles of streets forming parts or continuations of State highways within borough and town limits. The assumption of this burden by the Commonwealth will relieve these municipalities of an expenditure estimated to be at least five hundred thousand dollars each biennium, as well as the cost of construction of these streets of almost three million dollars.

4. The taking over as State highways of approximately one hundred miles of city streets in the City of Philadelphia, which streets form direct continuations of main State highways within that city. The assumption of this burden by the Commonwealth will relieve the City of Philadelphia of a present biennial expenditure of approximately one million dollars and a future estimated expenditure far in excess of that amount when reconstruction and resurfacing of these streets is required.

5. The taking over of approximately one hundred and ten miles of streets in cities of the second, second-A and third classes, which form parts or continuations of State highways on the Rural system, entering such cities. The assumption of this obligation will relieve these cities of an estimated biennial expenditure for construction and maintenance of five hundred thousand dollars.

6. The assumption of property damages on State highway routes outside of municipalities by the Commonwealth. This will relieve sixty-six counties in Pennsylvania of an annual expenditure of approximately two million dollars as developed over the last eight years and the funds so relieved may be devoted to either relief purposes or the reduction of county tax levies.

These additional obligations can be taken over by the Commonwealth and their assumption will not only provide a well-rounded plan of highway development, which will protect the Motor Fund and afford increased work relief, but will also relieve these municipalities of a continuing obligation, not only for this biennium but for future years.

In addition to the assumption of these obligations the Commonwealth may carry on a major program of highway construction on both the old State highway system and rural system, which will be of incalculable benefit in the future development of business and resources of this commonwealth.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to state further that the idea that this bill is going to reduce local taxes will not prove true in all cases. I represent a first-class township and a third-class city, and I know that if this bill does pass our taxes will not be reduced. We may receive additional streets, but if the bill does not pass those streets will not be built. To a certain extent they will be more of a luxury than a necessity.

Now, this Department, as I understand it and as I have seen it, has given to the State one hundred cents worth of service pretty nearly for every dollar that has been spent. There is no one who questions the ability of the State Highway Department to construct roads and to give service for the money spent.

In conclusion I want to call your attention to some of the inequalities in this bill so far as the division of the roads is concerned and a carefuly study of the various subdivisions will show greater inequalities. I have not had a chance to look into the townships, where I feel there will be extreme inequalities, but I have gone into some of the thrid-class cities, and here is what I have found:

Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and Pittston are third-class cities located in Luzerne county. Wilkes-Barre is twice as big as Hazleton in population, yet they both get the same amount of money under the Williamson Bill for streets. Pittston is one-half the size of Hazleton, but Hazleton gets more than four times as much money as Pittston under the bill.

Reading and Erie are practically the same size in population, yet Erie gets two and a quarter times as much money as Reading under the Williamson Bill.

Altoona gets two and a quarter times as much money as Reading, yet Reading has nearly twenty thousand more population than Altoona.

Uniontown, Monessen and Duquesne are three third-class cities in Western Pennsylvania with practically the same population. They all hinge around twenty-thousand people, accaccording to the last census, yet Uniontown gets twice as much money as either of the other two cities.

York has a population of ten thousand larger than Williamsport, yet Williamsport gets twice as much money as York.

Lancaster has three thousand more population than Bethlehem, yet Bethlehem gets almost two and one-half times as much money as Lancaster.

Lebanon and Pottsville are both of equal size in population, yet Lebanon gets fifty per cent more money than Pottsville.

My friends, with these remarks I will conclude with the request that this bill be voted down. It is not a good bill as far as equality is concerned and it is not an economical bill.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, for eighteen years I have heard it said time and time again on the floor of this House that real estate is carrying from seventy-five to eighty per cent of the burden of taxation, an unjust share, a statement that has never been denied for eighteen years on the floor of this House, but every time a bill comes up to relieve the local taxpayer there is always somebody to find fault, somebody to find a little technicality, or somebody to find an excuse for some inequality or something of that sort in the bill, and the result is that the local taxpayer is never relieved.

This is one of a few bills that we have been privileged to vote upon, which will relieve local taxes on real estate. There are some others here, as, for instance, just a week or two ago the thirteen thousand mile so-called Peters Bill which puts thirteen thousand miles of roads on the State highway system. That is one form of relief. This is a second form of relief. There is another bill coming that proposes to take over all of the remaining three thousand miles and place them on the State highway system.

Every member of this House knows that there is not a ghost of a chance to pass any bill over the Governor's veto. Suppose it should happen that the fifty-three thousand mile bill should not pass, then the House would not even have a chance to relieve the local tax situation on real estate.

I feel that as a matter of common sense and as a matter of loyalty to the local taxpayer who have for so many years borne more than their just share of taxation, we should put on the Governor's desk every bill that gives us a chance to relieve the taxes on real estate.

I do not claim that this bill is perfect, no doubt it has some faults, no doubt it has some inequalities, but it is just that very argument, that very method of fault finding that has defeated every bill in this House for eighteen years, which was intended to relieve the tax on real estate and to bring about an equitable situation in the carrying of tax burdens in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Only a few weeks ago we passed the Einstein Bill taking away the four mill personal property tax on bank deposits. I do not understand that that money is now going to the State and that that tax is not to be relieved. Of course I did not realize when I voted for that bill just what it would do, and I doubt whether there is any member of this House who did realize at the time that the construction that has now been placed upon it was possible to be placed upon it, but I do say this: Let us stop quibbling, let us stop fault finding, let us stop finding fault with every bill that would tend to bring relief to the local taxpayers of Pennsylvania.

If the Governor finds on his desk at the close of this session some other bill that he feels will relieve local taxation better than this bill, he will have the opportunity to sign it, but whatever we do let this House not go on record here today as not being capable of giving the Governor a chance to relieve the pressure on local taxation.

You and I know, and especially those from the rural districts know the burden that is now resting upon every local board, whether it is a road board, a school board, a borough council or any other local body that must derive its expenditures from local taxation.

Let us stop quibbling, let us stop talking and pass this bill, because it is one of the few bills that we have had an opportunity to vote upon, that will give real relief to the local taxpayers back home in the districts of Pennsylvania.

Mr. HEFFNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, You have heard quite a lot and I have, and perhaps I agree very readily with my good friend Sarig from eastern Pennsylvania. The question is not what we can get, but it is a question of whether this is the best piece of legislation that we can possibly have an opportunity to pass upon so far in this session.

I will be very brief. I want to ask my good friends from Philadelphia if the amount set forth in this bill would effect the support, the upkeep and the maintenance of the streets in Philadelphia. If that be true, ladies and gentlemen of the House, then Philadelphia real estate, without doubt, without question, would be relieved of that portion of their budget that goes to the maintenance of the streets of Philadelphia.

In Pittsburgh, I will ask my friends from Pittsburgh if the amount in this bill as provided herein would relieve that portion of their budget which goes for streets and maintenance, if that will not be a relief upon the real estate of Allegheny county and Pittsburgh.

I ask my friends from the third-class cities if the allocation made herein will relieve the burden of taxation upon real estate in the third-class cities in Pennsylvania, is it worth anything to you as members that represent counties with third-class cities in them.

I ask the members from the first-class townships of Pennsylvania, is the amount set forth in this act beneficial to you in your first-class townships to relieve the burden of taxation. If it is, is this the best or do you have something better.

I want to ask the members from the second-class townships who represent the same parts of Pennsylvania that I represent, if two hundred dollars a mile is allocated in this bill to the rural roads of Pennsylvania, and God knows that many of them today are not receiving five dollars a mile in two years, will it be a relief to you and to me in rural central Pennsylvania?

It occurs to me that this is the first real measure. There may be more to come, and I shall certainly vote for them and ask my friends of rural Pennsylvania to vote for them. I know perhaps that it could be better, but this is the first act that has been presented to you and to me that affects your home and my home, your county and my county, your first-class cities, your second-class cities, your second-class A cities, your first-class townships and your second-class townships of Pennsylvania.

If you feel it is not a tax relief on real estate, I would ask you in all fairness not to vote for this bill, but if you see that it is a benefit and a relief to you and to your constituents in your county, which you have the honor to represent, I would kindly ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is no one who would go further to relieve taxation on real estate than I would go, but there is a question in my mind. I can not understand how you figure you are relieving real estate when you are taking it from the rural districts and putting it in the more populous districts.

It is an acknowledged fact by all economists in the country today that prosperity will not be restored until the farmer has been put on a solid foundation. By this act we are robbing the farmer of the roads he needs as badly as any city needs them.

The rural districts have not the roads they need for access to and from the markets. Furthermore, I want to say this, if this bill goes through it wont be long before we will be asked to increase the motor license fees and gasoline taxes, because the fund that we are now robbing will have to be reimbursed.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, this bill has not been in our hands for a very long period of time, but I believe that in the few moments at my disposal I have looked it over sufficiently to confirm my opposition to the bill. I will take the time of the Senate for only a few moments, to explain some of the provisions of this bill which I regard as bad.

First, there is a definition of "beverage," and we find the definition to be: "beer, lagar beer, ale, porter, wine" and so forth "containing one-half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume and not exceeding three and two-tenths per centum of alcohol by weight."

We find, therefore, that by its definition this bill regulates alcoholic liquor having a content which has been declared by the Congress of the United States and by the President of the United States to be non-intoxicating. Therefore, we start off with the premise that we are regulating something which is purely non-intoxicating, and to my mind this seriously raises the question of constitutionality.

I presume no one would question for a moment that were we to regulate ginger ale and not regulate other soft drinks the bill would be unconstitutional, as class legislation; but if we are to accept the view,——and I must accept the view, whatever my individual opinion may be, ——of the constitutionality of an Act of Congress, that it is non-intoxicating, I fail to see how we can regulate one form of harmless beverage and exclude all others.

On page 3 we find the definition of "eating place" as meaning "a room having an area of not less than three hundred square feet and equipped with tables and chairs accommodating forty persons at one time." If I understand the theory of this legislation correctly, it is that we are to produce revenue, ——because I can hardly see the reason under the police power, of regulating the sale of this harmless non-intoxicating beverage; and I therefore fail to see any reason whatever why a place accommodating forty persons or more should come within the purview of this act and the place which would accommodate thirty-nine persons should not be brought within the act.

These are but some of possibly the less serious objections to this bill, but my principal objection to this bill is the fact that notwithstanding the numerous amendments which have been made we continue to place the licensing power in the hands of the county treasurer; and I pause for a moment to ask, "Why are we doing this?"

It was only a few weeks ago that the Senate of Pennsylvania went on record: and I believe the vote shows that thirty-four Senators favored licensing by the courts. All these thirty-four Senators have gone on record as placing confidence in the courts of Pennsylvania; and why this reversal of sentiment today? To my mind, members of the Senate, this bill stands as a direct reflection upon the judiciary of Pennsylvania. Are we in this Legislature to say that the judges of our courts, the members of the third great department of government, cannot be trusted in the matter of granting licenses?

I have heard the argument made that to place the licensing in the courts would be politics; and seemingly, therefore, to place the licensing power in the county treasurer takes this out of politics. If any Senator can see logic, or common sense in an argument like that, I submit that I am unable to argue that question any further than merely to state the fact.

But the serious point is that the county treasurer is not a mere licensing officer, under this act, acting without discretion,——I would not have so much objection to this bill if the county treasurer were to grant a license to every applicant who desired it, just as the county treasurer today grants a license to every dog owner who wants a license,—— here we are putting a discretion into the hands of the county treasurer: and I submit that the little amendment on page 6, striking out the word "may" and inserting in place thereof the word "shall," does not in any sense alter that fact. The mere fact that there is an appeal from the decision of the county treasurer to the Court of Quarter Sessions, whenever an applicant is refused, shows conclusively that discretion in the county treasurer is written all through this act.

Objection has been made to the old Brooks License Law and some of the evils resulting therefrom; but I would like some member of the Senate to explain wherein the same questions of discrtion are not vested in the county treasurer that were before the courts under the old Brooks License Law. An examination of Section 7 before it was amended, and, as well, under the present amendment, shows that the discretion of the county treasurer is subject to review of the courts.

I am speaking what I believe to be the sentiment of my county,——that we do no feel that this power, this gigantic power conferred under this act, should be placed in the treasurer's office. Under the law the treasurer is the fiscal officer of the county. It is an office of tremendous responsibility. In most of the counties of the Commonwealth the treasurer is, in addition, entrusted with the collection of part, at least, of the taxes which come into his hands; and, I say, into this office which guards the funds of the tax-payers of the county should not be placed this additional power which will raise that office to an importance and a dignity which is dangerous in our Commonwealth, by including in that office the discretionary power of granting licenses. And for this reason, Mr. President, I hope this bill will not have the support of the Senate.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the objections raised by the Senator from Dauphin County have been discussed in the Law and Order Committee and on the floor of this Senate at length; and I know that the members of this body thoroughly understand the bill now. I do not think we should have any more delay, and further debate is unnecessary; and I ask the members of the Senate to support this measure.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL OVER IN ORDER REQUESTED

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 534, on third reading, entitled:

An Act creating in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys, erroneously paid abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I will ask the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, who is interested in this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, whether it is not true that under the provisions of this bill the right of the people to elect assessors in the counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes will be abolished.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I merely wish to bring to the attention of the Senate at this time a practice that is rapidly on the increase, to wit, the practice of taking away from the people the right to elect those who should have something, or will have something, to say either about their property or their personal rights. We are rapidly approaching the situation, or the point in political history of our Commonwealth, where we are saying to the people in no uncertain way that they are competent to nominate and elect the men who should represent them in the halls of legislation at Harrisburg and in the halls of legislation at Washington, but when it comes to electing anybody else they are rather incompetent. I, for one, for the past ten years have been raising my voice in the House against this very bill. The bill, in 1923, was introduced by John Marshall of Beaver County. Again, in 1925, and in 1927, by Benjamin Ludlow of Montgomery County; and today it appears herein the Senate with a new sponsor, but without any different clothing. It is the same old thing—telling the people back home that they are no longer able to nominate and elect those who are to place a valuation, an assessed valuation, upon their property. And what is the substitute? The substitute is this: To have the County Commissioners, three men,—they are going to place their trust in three men instead of an assessor in every locality—three men to do what? These three men, that constitute the Board of Revision, or Assessment , have the right to do what?—to appoint subordinate assessors who go up and down the limits of the county and assess the property, according to whose wishes and whose dictates?—the County Commissioners. And if you have an outfit, a corporation with power and influence in the county—and I am not going to use innuendo now—but a corporation that may have control, and I do not say that with any disparagement but with the anxiety to preserve themselves and take care of their own interest, it would not be fair to them, in a county like Schuylkill to imagine or to conceive that the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company, for instance,—and I have nothing against them, they have done nothing to me, but I am using it as an illustration,—to get control of whom, or to have who acting in their interests? These County Commissioners, perhaps, whom they were instrumental, to a great extent, in having elected,—having lent their influence to the election of these County Commissioners —are they going to nominate three men who would be opposed to the interest of the coal companies? No.

Let me tell what happened. About seven years ago we had an unhappy situation in Schuylkill County, and not only in Schuylkill County, you had it up in Luzerne and you had it in Lackawanna County, you had it in Northumberland County, —your coal producing counties, where the county commissioners were dissatisfied with the assessed valuation placed on the coal lands by the assessors who were publicly nominated and elected by the people, their neighbors. And what happened? They appointed special assessors, who went up and down the length and breadth of Schuylkill County, and did what?—they placed an assessment upon the coal lands and placed an assessment upon the property owners; and I do not want to say this, but I believe I am compelled to,—they placed such an assessment that they must have known that when it went into the Courts of Appeal it would be set aside. And what happened? The Courts of Schuylkill County sustained that assessment, and the coal companies who had availed themselves of the right to take an appeal within thirty days from the date of assessment, appealed to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; and the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania wiped out the assessment. And what happened? Every school district thought, "Here is an immense amount of money coming to the school district." And they commenced building high schools and what not—vocational training schools and so forth—and when the Supreme Court wiped out the assessment, in that decision, it stated they had to pay back to the coal companies that amount of money which the coal companies had paid under protest. Why, it practically ruined district after district in Schuylkill County. And let me tell you the sad part, the tragedy of the whole situation, if you will: The individual property owner did not take an appeal, and where was he left? He was left holding the bag, with this high assessment; and the coal company went back to the original assessment. Why? Because they had taken their appeal within thirty days.

You may have this thought: Why did not each individual property owner take an appeal? Can you conceive of the 235,000 citizens—oh, say, 100,000 property owners marching down to the court house to take out an appeal? No, they were lulled to sleep. They thought this special assessment would hold water, and, like good citizens, they went and paid their taxes in accordance. They did not get a rebate. And why? Because the courts said they should have come in within thirty days after the day of this special assessment and taken out their appeal.

Now then, that is an illustration of how this thing, to my mind, is going to work out. And what happens? I thought we were in the midst of economy. The salary of the members of the board who shall be appointed by the County Commissioners to serve for the term of four years shall be fixed by the County Commissioners or the Salary Board,—it does not say what; no check upon it whatsoever. And what happens? These three commissioners or assessors, or call them what you will,—because to my mind they were misnomers anyhow,—I know of some names that I could call them,—the subordinate assessors shall receive compensation as the Salary Board or the Commissioners shall place; it does not say how much Can you imagine what a mad rush there will be in counties like Schuykill to be County Commissioner? Why, it will be a throttle hold that will never be broken down. It would happen. Do not, you men that are out of this class,—in Allegheny County and Philadelphia County, where you do not have the situation that we have,—do not become a party to foisting this upon us. You have an entirely different situation in cities like Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Help us to prevent that with which we have been threatened for the past ten years; because I would hate to be compelled when perhaps I shall no longer be a member of this Senate, or, indeed in official public life at all, to come back here, maybe in four or five years, and appear before a Senatorial Committee and say, "Did I not tell you, on the floor of this Senate, that this kind of thing would happen?" Help us in this our time of need to defeat this bill, and you will be rendering a service, not only to yourselves but to those people who in counties like Schuylkill are standing in need of your vote.

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I was particularly impressed with one argument of my friend, the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, to the effect that if we pass this bill there will be a mad rush of candidates for the office of County Commissioner. But I submit that that will be nothing like the mad rush of candidates for the office of County Treasurer if a bill becomes law which we had before us a short time ago.

The picture presented by the Senator from Schuylkill is most alluring, and the gentleman from Schuylkill is always difficult to answer; but this is a controversy on which my distinguished friend and I have locked horns before, while we were members of the House of Representatives, and I feel that the people of Dauphin County are in this particular somewhat opposed to the people of Schuylkill County, and I will ask at least a few moments of your time to present the other side of the picture.

First, this bill is in harmony with the rule which now obtains in first, second and third class counties, of a central assessment board. You will recollect that two years ago the Legislature passed an act creating a board of this general character for counties of the third class; and there was a tremendous sentiment in fourth class counties two years ago in favor of a similar act. The fourth class county act came before the House of Representatives and was defeated. The sentiment in Dauphin County was so tremendous for the central board that one of our leading newspapers, the Harrisburg Telegraph, stated editorially that they hoped that next time the people of Dauphin County would send a representative to the Senate and to the House who would camp on this bill and see that fourth class counties had this central board of assessors

Now, I think the argument of the Senator from Schuylkill against this bill, as creating three salaried officers, is not a very sound argument when you consider that the cost of many assessors will be done away with. From that standpoint it is an economy measure; but also, in my opinion, it is an efficiency measure.

In Dauphin County, and, I believe, in many other counties, we have this situation: There may be, in one township, an assessor who assesses property low, in an adjoining township the assessor may put a high valuation; and therefore there is a lack of uniformity that exists, and certainly there is no cry coming from the taxpayer today which is more vocal than the cry against unjust and unequal assessments; and that, to my mind, is the prime reason for this bill.

I do not like to vote to take any man out of office, but I think the feeling is growing in fourth class counties—at least I am speaking for Dauphin County—that the time has come when we should extend this principle, which applies now to first, second and third class counties, to other counties as in the interest of economy, in the interest of efficiency, if we have a central board to regulate this vital question of assessors.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, no one from my district has approached me as to being for or against this bill. We all know, here in the Senate, that when a bill comes up for first class county and the members from the first class counties want that bill, we all trail along, and everybody gives the first class counties what they want. And so it expands, and when we come to the counties of the second class we do the same thing.

I think I can truthfully say that in my own county, of Huntingdon, the County Commissioners Board, as now constituted, being Republican,—the Republican members of that board are my staunchest political friends; and I think I am as close to the Democratic members of the County Commissioners Board as I am to a very few Democrats of my county of Huntingdon.

In other words, I can truthfully say that we have a high type, and a very satisfactory board, as far as my feelings are concerned, in the county of Huntingdon, as County Commissioners.

Now, in these times of depression we know that assessments have been too high. People cannot pay their taxes. And we are all looking forward to 1934, to the triennial assessment; and in 1935 the assessment as made in 1934 will go into effect.

At that triennial assessment the county assessors act as a check on the local assessors, and they are the court of last resort unless appeal is taken to the court. I do not for the little bit of property I have. I try for the triennial assessment. Everybody gets notice of the time, and his appeal is heard. He goes there and reasons with the Board; and if his assessment is too high, and the County Commissioners think it is too high, they red line the particular assessment and make it what it ought to be.

Now here we have a bill that proposes that the County Commissioners, the court of last resort, shall appoint the assessors. How shall we take our appeals from a too high assessment? Certainly the creatures of the County Commissioners Board are going to make the assessment according to the ideas of the County Commissioners. It may suit Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties, but it will not suit the fifth and the seventh class counties that I have the honor to represent.

Our people are opposed to this centralization of power. As the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, has well said, our country is aflame with organizations to keep from centralizing everything here in Harrisburg. Are we not going to heed the protests of our people, but are we supinely going to put every county of the State practically within the control of the county organization, and force everybody to go to the courts, at an expense, to appeal from the improper assessment of the county organization?

I say "No." Let us vote this bill down. Let us sweep out of office those who have been elected, and put in a County Commissioners' Board that will have no control, thfough the power of appointment, of the officers who are to make these assessments.

Mr. PRESIDENT. I am against this bill, and I hope that this Senate will vote it down.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, the distinguished Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, has mentioned going along with first-class counties when first-class counties wanted something, and with second-class counties when second-class counties wanted something, and that it is the part of reciprocity for the same thing to be done when third-clas counties wanted something or did not want something. It seems to me we are in rather an unfortunate position in first and second-class counties just now in not being able to know what the counties affected by this bill may desire; and therefore, as chairman of the Committee on New Counties and County Seats. I move that the bill be reported back to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats for the purpose of having the committee informed and the Senate informed how the Senators from the various counties stand on this matter; and then take action next week.

BILL RECOMMITTED

I, therefore move that Senate Bill No. 534 be recommitted to the Committee on New Counties and County Seats.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I think that this bill should be voted on "Yes" or "No," because to recommit it at this time is simply tantamount to killing the bill. Everybody knows there is a division in counties on this bill. There always has been and there always will be—

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I think a motion to recommit is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for twenty-nine Senators voted in the affirmative and none in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the affrmative.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege on this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I want to talk about the conditions surrounding this bill. I do not believe the Senators who are opposing this measure fully realize its importance. In the chaotic condition the Senate has been in for the last week or ten days, I do not blame them for not familiarizing themselves with it. This bill is a very important piece of legislation, and should pass. As Chairman of the Banking Committee of the Senate I urge you not to recommit it, but permit it to be passed, and let it be placed upon the Governors desk so he can sign it. It is good legislation. The only opposition that could possibly come to this bill is from those who are not familiar with it. I will not talk upon the bill at this time, but will ask the members of the Senate to vote against recommitting it, because I am familiar with the provisions of the bill, and I can vouch for the goodness which can be accomplished by its passage.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, whether he knows that this bill was in the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, referred to a subcommittee for investigation, was reported by that sub-committee back to the committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations with approval, for the purpose of having the bill go to the Governor.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I did not know that.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, my question of personal privilege is raised in order to assist Senator Sordoni and Senator Woodward in predisposing the minds of the Senators favorably toward this bill, and to preserve the inviolability of that parliamentary rule which limits debate to the motion under under consideration.

These institutions are modeled after the German Raffeisen Banks, which were organized in 1848 and have swept all over Europe. The National Credit Union Extension Bureau is financed by Edward A. Filene, the merchant-philanthropist of Boston, who spends his money for this purpose as Carnegie established free libraries and as Rockefeller endows colleges and biological research laboratories.

The purpose of the credit union is to enable persons who cannot get loans from banks to borrow from the collective resources of a group. This group consists principally of industrial workers and small farmers, not exceeding twenty, who pay in the small amount of twenty-five cents a week and lend each other the funds which thus accumulate. It is a significant fact, Mr. President, testifying to the strength of these institutions and to the soundness of their methods, that during the present period of industrial prostration, while 5,000 banks failed and 4,000 banks called upon the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for aid, not one of the 1,800 credit unions in the United States has been affected by the depression except two or three in New York State, organized on racial lines, which have not followed credit union procedure.

There are 1,800 credit unions in the United States, with a membership of 300,000, and with assets of fifty millions. They have been established by law in thirty-six States, in the District of Columbia and in two provinces in Canada.

This bill is approved by the Banking Department of this State, by the Department of Agriculture, by the State Teachers Association, by the Farm Bureau Federation and by the State Grange. The United States Post Office has 300 credit unions, with a total membership of 60,000 and assets of $29,000,000.

Last Monday night I listened to an eloquent and impressive speech by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, against a bill which he denounced as the worst piece of proposed legislation that had been presented during this session, and I believe he was right.

Mr. President, I am convinced that if this bill is passed it will prove to be the most meritorious and the most permanently helpful measure of relief that has been enacted during the session of 1933.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, one additional word to what has already been said. I have a large paper, but shall not impose on the time of the Senate by reading it all. I shall read this paragraph for the benefit of the members of the banking fraternity present:

"In no way, directly or indirectly, does the credit union compete with or seek to substitute itself for a bank or a building and loan association or a small loan company; there is no competition between the three forms of banking in any of the States where all three have flourished for many years. The Granges are much interested in the relief which credit unions will extend to Pennsylvania farmers. Organized labor in many states, and nationally, has gone on record in favor of the credit union because of the great service rendered by it. Organized business, as represented by State Chambers of Commerce and State Manufacturers' Associations favor this legislation; and many of the finest and most useful credit unions serve the employes of such major industrial units as Swift and Company, Armour and Company, the Du Pont industries the Industrial Shoe Company, and so on."

I trust that we can get a unanimous vote on this, gentlemen; it is one of the most meritorious pieces of legislation before the Senate today.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I am impressed by what Senator Prince has just said, and I think if the bill has the merit he suggests, it should be passed.

I therefore withdraw my motion.

Mr. BAUMER. Mr. President, I withdraw the second.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to recommit is withdrawn.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 1235

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1235 (House Bill No. 1033), entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred twenty-two, of the act approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts, and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," as amended, exempting certain veterans' organizations from payment of fees for registration and certificates of titles of motor vehicles owned and used by them, passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. SHAPIRO. I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I feel there were a number of the Senators who voted "no" on this bill under a misapprehension.

I therefore ask immediate reconsideration of the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, this bill was discussed in the Committee on Finance, and we, of course, are tenderhearted toward all the veteran organizations, but the trouble with the bill is that it opens the door to all kinds of charitable organizations to be exempted from paying this tax to the Motor Fund for registration. If we could limit the bill to veterans' organizations, that would be one thing, but as I understand the bill now before us the Red Cross and other organizations would have this same exemption, and the thing would roll along and you would have a great many exemptions under this act.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1235, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HOWELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1324 (House Bill No. 1888), on third reading, entitled:

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1345 (House Bill No. 141), entitled:

An Act to amend sections two and three section four as amended section five seven and eight of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand seven hundred eighty) enitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County" by reducing the salaries of judges.

And said bill having ben read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in rising to make a protest against this bill I may seem to be doing what at first blush looks like a dangerous thing, but upon analysis I think it will be seen that the danger is more apparent than real. This is the bill that seeks to reduce the salaries of judges, and, apparently in disguise, is a so-called economy measure. It seems to me, if it were a measure that would result in some real economy, no one would object, and I would not raise my voice against it.

This bill seems to reduce salaries of judges all through the State; but, as a matter of fact, by its very provisions, and under the law, it would affect only a few judges. For instance, justices of the Supreme Court, elected for 21-year terms, would not be affected by this bill; justices of the Superior Court, elected for 10-year terms, would not be affected by this bill.

In Philadelphia we have five Common Pleas Courts, and there are three judges in each court, or fifteen judges in all; but only four of them, coming up for re-election, would be affected by this bill. In the Municipal Court, where four or five come up for re-election, only those four or five would be affected, and the remaining judges would not. This would place the Common Pleas Court in the anomalous position of having three judges in one court, with two of them receiving a salary of $14,000 and one a salary of $12,000. In one particular court the President Judge, who has served long, and gained a creditable reputation for himself, comes up for re-election—and he undoubtedly will be re-elected, and when he is re-elected he will find his salary reduced to a figure lower than the salary of the other two associate judges who have been there, one for only four or five years and the other for a shorter time.

It seems to me, Mr. President that a bill which, in a large City of Philadelphia, can save the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at most, only, approximately $14,000 or $15,000, and, at the same time, humiliates the judges, who sit together on the bench to so great a degree, should have the most careful scrutiny; especially when it is a measure that cannot, in any sense, be called a real economy bill. And the situation that we find in Philadelphia must be true all over the State. There are many judges who have been re-elected for terms of years who cannot be affected by this reduction in salary. At the same time that this bill was in the House a resolution was defeated, which would have placed all judges on an equal basis.

It would be taking an unfair advantage of those judges who are coming up for re-election, and who have served long and well, to reduce their salaries while others who sit with them have their salaries remain the same.

The only reason, to my mind, that a bill such as this is introduced is because we are living in hectic times, and few are willing to raise their voices in protest against a bill that passes, or seems to pass, for an economy measure. I am willing to help the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to save as much money as it possibly can, if we can have a real economy measure; and I am willing to sit here long enough to accomplish that result, no matter how long that may be; but I do feel justified in asking, on behalf of the men who have served the Commonwealth faithfully and have earned less than they could have earned had they left the bench and practiced law, men who have made sacrifices during good times—I feel justified in asking that you do not place them in this position of inequality with their associates.

So, I raise my voice in behalf of those judges, and say to you that this is not, in any sense, an economy measure, because the result will be to humiliate the judges the value of whose services far exceeds the value of the money that would be saved by the bill.

If, as it seems, the consensus of the Senate is that this bill should be passed, it should be so restricted that the Senate may again deal with it when the proper occasion arises. So I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment to this bill which will restrict its force and effect for three years; so that when we come here again, if the conditions under which we are living now have been changed—or, if they have not changed—we can act accordingly. This bill's being restricted to three years' time will give us ample time to readjust ourselves; and if we need any emergency measure at that time we can take the drastic step just as well then.

I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. REED. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to assure my friend, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that I have not made objection to his request, for unanimous consent to amend for any captious reasons; nor do I intend to argue the merits or defects of this bill; but I think it is only fair that the Senate should understand the present status of the various bills of this character.

Last January I think it was the Senate passed a bill which is identical in form with the present bill, and that bill passed the Senate by an overwhelming majority. I had the honor of introducing that bill. Since then that bill has been for a long period, I believe, on the calendar of the House.

The Hutton Bill, now before us, passed the House of Representatives in an entirely different form, and it was amended, in the Committee on Judiciary General, so that it is now before the Senate in precisely the same form that the bill which I introduced was passed by the Senate early in the session.

This has been a matter which has been discussed many times in the Committee on Judiciary General, and the bill as now before the Senate represents the repeated action of the Committee on Judiciary General and the consensus of the Senate as expressed heretofore.

I think the only question before the Senate is: Are we going to consider this matter at all during the session? If we are, it seems to me that the bill should be brought to a vote, and voted up or voted down in its present form.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1432, on third reading, entitled:

An Act declaring and adopting the Mountain Laurel (Kalmia latifolia) as the State Flower of Pennsylvania.

go over in its order.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I object. I would like very much if the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, would see fit to withdraw his request.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I withdraw the request.

The PRESIDENT. The request is withdrawn.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1432 (House Bill No. 1127), entitled:

An Act declaring and adopting the Mountain Laurel (Kalmia latifolia) as the State Flower of Pennsylvania

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I possibly should just say one word in connection with this bill. I say it because I do not want any misunderstanding with the Senators on how they are voting. There was a bill just passed that you might think would conflict with this bill; but the other day I spoke to the author of the other bill, and after I had made a motion that it be reconsidered, then we had a sort of mutual understanding that neither would object to the other bill and both bills would be allowed to go through. And therefore I am hoping that as the other bill went through without objection this bill might be accorded the same privilege.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Warren, Mr. Roberts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Warren, Mr. Roberts, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, has anybody suggested the sunflower?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, not to my knowledge.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I do not know but what it would be a good flower, but I doubt it very much.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I would like to see it go through.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would rather vote on a resolution to let the Governor select the flower.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, a lily-of-the-valley I guess we would get.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?
